

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

Even Washburn, Wis., has a public library. In Duluth in too great haste to be left to afford such a civility?

Deer are reported plenty back of and north from the city and at two Harbors a number have been seen lately.

Work will soon begin on extensive and expensive repairs and changes to the Oast-frage to fit her for carrying more passengers.

Passengers over the Duluth South Shore & Atlantic report plenty of snow for loggers on the line easterly and the rut going on rapidly.

Minimum temperature this morning was 14 degrees above. The day, like most winter days in this climate, has been bright and pleasant.

Wheat receipts today are 7,735 bushels, shipments 6,578 bushels, as against 7,213 and 1,240 same date last year. Cars on track this morning were 33.

The open gambling house of the city are responsible for the late of another young man, this time a man well known, of good parentage and bright prospects.

At the October term of the state supreme court, now closing its session, there remains to be tried that of the City of Duluth vs. St. Paul & Duluth Railroad company.

It is claimed by the police that the safe-blowers and thieves who were working Duluth last week, are the same ones who cleaned out Ashland so thoroughly a few days later.

Flour statements for the week show receipts of the Eastern Minnesota of 4,500 barrels, by the Northern Pacific of 500, making a total in store today, of 11,073, as against none a year ago. Receipts will be large from now on.

If any voters were fooled by the News' announcement of Republican primaries this afternoon they will have their labor for their pains. Primaries are held next Tuesday, the 29th, and cannot be the day following, instead of tomorrow.

An adjourned meeting of the Lincoln club was held last night. The articles of the club were finally adopted and certain of the routine business was done. A second meeting is being held this afternoon to appoint committees for the coming election.

The Iron Range road has a large force of men at work grading the property lately purchased from Thos. Feigh for railroad yards at Two Harbors. The main track will be extended a distance of over a thousand feet, and other side tracks will be put in, giving room to store several thousand more cars. Track room for one thousand cars must be supplied at once.

A four winged chandelier rooster is a freak which T. O'Brien and C. C. Brown of this city propose to exhibit. It is a large rooster, weighing about 12 pounds, and on the lower joint of each leg a fully developed and full sized wing grows out, reminding the beholder of a winged Mercury. Brown & O'Brien propose to exhibit the monstrosity at a state that they have been offered $250 for it. It can be seen at the Minneapolis Tribune office in the St. Louis Hotel for a few days.

The talk of a consolidation between the Northern Pacific and Wisconsin Central, much as Duluth would like to see it, is probably to end in talk. A telegram states that the scheme will probably fall through; its promoters having failed to secure sufficient strength in the Northern Pacific board to carry through the plan of a lease, proposed a traffic contract, and that, too, is certain to be defeated, and would be made by injunction if an attempt should be made to push it. It is believed that such an alliance would precipitate a terrific railroad war.

At about 11:30 this morning fire was discovered in the small two story building, No. 318 Lake avenue south, and an alarm was quickly turned in. The chemical, hook and ladder and hose cart, together with a big crowd, were soon on the ground, but the fire was easily extinguished by the chemical with but little loss to any one. The building is owned by Louis Benjamin, and is to be occupied in a few days by John Curry, who had men at work papering. It is not damaged over $200. The fire caught from a poor stove pipe connection in the second story. This was the first time the chemical engine had a chance to show what it was good for, and it did its work well. There is no doubt that the machine will prove of great value, especially in small fires, and in cases where water cannot be used to advantage, or at all, as is the present situation above the center line of Fourth street. Mr. Curry wishes to thank the department and his neighbors for timely aid.

Why I am Going to New Orleans.

Because the great "Garden Palace," located in the center of Lafayette square, New Orleans, the exterior of which is beautifully decorated with cotton, cane, rice and palmetto, and the interior filled with southern exhibits of farm products, fruits, flowers, tropical plants, Louisiana oranges trees loaded with delicious fruit, and every conceivable thing manufactured or grown in the south, attracted in the most unique and artistic manner, will open February 15, and close March 10.

Because, the twenty-four companies of firemen, 2,000 men in uniform, with the finest horses in the world will parade March 4.

Because, the Mardi Gras Procession, the most expensive and gorgeous ever witnessed in this or any other country, will take place at New Orleans, March 5.

Because, I want to visit the Northern Settlement on the line of the ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD in Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana, and at the same time take in the above attractions.

Because, I can spend the months of February and March, the two very worst months in the year, north, at New Orleans and points near by.

Because, I can purchase a low rate round trip ticket of any local ticket agent, reading via Chicago or St. Louis, and thence via the Illinois Central, the direct line between the North and the South.

Because, I have written Mr. J. F. Merry, General Western Passenger Agent, Manchester, Iowa, and he has mailed me free, as he does every one who writes him, a full library of pamphlets and circulars, describing all the above attractions, giving names of hotels, locations, rates, where to get furnished rooms at New Orleans, points of interest in and about the city, etc., etc. I can't help it, I must go to New Orleans.

Unintentionally Laughed At.

The unthinking are prone to make game of nervousness. Yet this is a very real and serious affliction, the harassing symptoms of which are rendered all the more poignant by ridicule. The stomach is usually responsible for these symptoms—its weakness and disorder find a reflex in the brain, which is the headquarters of the nervous system. As a nerve tonic and tranquilizer, we believe that no one can be pointed out so effectively as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. In renewing vigorous digestion, it strikes the keynote of recovery of strength and quietude by the abnormal sensitiveness to unexpected noises—all these modify and ultimately disappear as the system gains strength from the great tonic. Dyspepsia, biliousness, rheumatism, constipation and kidney complaints are subdued by the bitters.

The ladies of the First Baptist church will be glad to receive their friends at lunch and dinner on Wednesday, 23rd, at the vacant room of the St. Louis hotel building, next the Model shoe store.

Lunch will be served from 12 o'clock till 2 p. m.

Dinner from 5:30 to 8 o'clock.

The hungry, the weary, the troubled in heart and the dyspeptic in stomach will each find strength and cheer in accord with their desire and necessity.

Neither lunch nor dinner will be free, nor will a collection be taken to defray expenses, but the sum of 50 cents will be charged for each meal.

All are most cordially invited.

Try The MAGNOLIA : CIGAR.
—AT—
BOYCE & TOTMAN'S.

ONLY HIS SISTER.

One moonlight night, long, long ago
Within my memory linger
Will I recall her answers low
The clasp of slender fingers.

Her hand lay lightly on my arm
As home we slowly wandered
While the secret of her charm
Rustles, vainly pondered.

That perfect night, her witching grace
Made me a creature ampler
The moonbeams brightly earnest face
And set a tale example.

At last we reached her father's gate—
"And then," you say "you kissed her?"
Oh, no! you're too precipitate.
You see, she was my sister
—Somerville Journal.

Dog Fawns.

In Manchuria and Mongolia a young woman's wedding portion consists not always of so many head of cattle, but frequently of a dog farm, these being reared for the sake of the thick fur with which the dogs in these latter cold regions are so excellently endowed, as indeed they used to be, seeing that in midwinter the thermometer (Fahrenheit) sometimes falls to 25 deg. below zero, i. e., 37 deg. of frost. This business is systematically carried on as is that of sheep farming in Australia, the rate of reproduction being estimated at 10 per cent. per annum; so, reckoning the increase by geometrical ratio, it is evident that the bride who receives a dower of a dozen of these very large, long haired dogs is well started in life. But of course the majority of these fine animals are not destined to survive their first year, as they are full grown when about 8 months old, and their fur attains perfection in winter, so that only those required for breeding are allowed to see the spring. All over the northern part of these vast Mongolian and Manchurian territories these dog farms are scattered, and there are thousands in which a few hundred dogs are annually reared for the market, while others merely raise enough to supply robes and mats for home use. There are a good many cases in which one can scarcely afford to think of antelopes, and certainly this slaughter of perhaps the handsomest race of dogs in the world for the sake of their coats is peculiarly unpleasant. —Blackwood's Magazine.

Inherited Peculiarities.

"A Mother" writes, giving an interesting case of inherited peculiarity, which, although it does not come precisely within the category of transmission of an artificial injury, is yet worth recording, if only to prove how trivial marks of parents may reappear in the offspring. Her first child, a boy, at present aged 21 months, was seen, shortly after birth, to possess two small holes, each about the size of a pin's head, in "the upper part of each of his ears."

The mother's attention was drawn to the peculiarity by her husband, who remarked the fact (of which till then she was completely ignorant), that he possessed the same marks, situated in precisely the same position, as they occupied in his son. Further inquiry amongst the relatives showed that the child's grandfather (on the paternal side) possessed the same peculiarity of ears. No information could be obtained respecting the original cause of the peculiarity. It is striking to find such marks, not only faithfully propagated, but descending strictly on the male side for three generations. There is no trace of the marks in the second child—a girl—of the family. —Herald of Health.

Lifting the Hat.

Lifting the hat is a custom that had a military origin, it is said. In olden times soldiers wore helmets to protect their heads from assaults by the sword or battle axe, and to remove this head covering was to show confidence in the man to whom the salute was extended. No gentleman was expected to spit after a head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

A Countess a Factory Girl Now.

This is what we are coming to. One day a young and pretty girl came to a magistrate in a town in Austria, demanding the regulation Dinstreich into which the particulars about the antecedents of any one in search of work are entered, the booklet having to be split a man's head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

Lifting the Hat.

Lifting the hat is a custom that had a military origin, it is said. In olden times soldiers wore helmets to protect their heads from assaults by the sword or battle axe, and to remove this head covering was to show confidence in the man to whom the salute was extended. No gentleman was expected to spit after a head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

A Countess a Factory Girl Now.

This is what we are coming to. One day a young and pretty girl came to a magistrate in a town in Austria, demanding the regulation Dinstreich into which the particulars about the antecedents of any one in search of work are entered, the booklet having to be split a man's head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

Lifting the Hat.

Lifting the hat is a custom that had a military origin, it is said. In olden times soldiers wore helmets to protect their heads from assaults by the sword or battle axe, and to remove this head covering was to show confidence in the man to whom the salute was extended. No gentleman was expected to spit after a head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

A Countess a Factory Girl Now.

This is what we are coming to. One day a young and pretty girl came to a magistrate in a town in Austria, demanding the regulation Dinstreich into which the particulars about the antecedents of any one in search of work are entered, the booklet having to be split a man's head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

Lifting the Hat.

Lifting the hat is a custom that had a military origin, it is said. In olden times soldiers wore helmets to protect their heads from assaults by the sword or battle axe, and to remove this head covering was to show confidence in the man to whom the salute was extended. No gentleman was expected to spit after a head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

A Countess a Factory Girl Now.

This is what we are coming to. One day a young and pretty girl came to a magistrate in a town in Austria, demanding the regulation Dinstreich into which the particulars about the antecedents of any one in search of work are entered, the booklet having to be split a man's head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

Lifting the Hat.

Lifting the hat is a custom that had a military origin, it is said. In olden times soldiers wore helmets to protect their heads from assaults by the sword or battle axe, and to remove this head covering was to show confidence in the man to whom the salute was extended. No gentleman was expected to spit after a head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

A Countess a Factory Girl Now.

This is what we are coming to. One day a young and pretty girl came to a magistrate in a town in Austria, demanding the regulation Dinstreich into which the particulars about the antecedents of any one in search of work are entered, the booklet having to be split a man's head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

Lifting the Hat.

Lifting the hat is a custom that had a military origin, it is said. In olden times soldiers wore helmets to protect their heads from assaults by the sword or battle axe, and to remove this head covering was to show confidence in the man to whom the salute was extended. No gentleman was expected to spit after a head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

A Countess a Factory Girl Now.

This is what we are coming to. One day a young and pretty girl came to a magistrate in a town in Austria, demanding the regulation Dinstreich into which the particulars about the antecedents of any one in search of work are entered, the booklet having to be split a man's head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

Lifting the Hat.

Lifting the hat is a custom that had a military origin, it is said. In olden times soldiers wore helmets to protect their heads from assaults by the sword or battle axe, and to remove this head covering was to show confidence in the man to whom the salute was extended. No gentleman was expected to spit after a head open after this mark of trustfulness, though he was sometimes treacherous enough to do so. To lift the hat gratuitously is considerable of an accomplishment, requiring long practice. There is a man in New York who has become such an adept at it that he can lift half a dozen hats at a time, if he can sneak into a hallway while the folks are at dinner. —Texas Siftings.

HIGH GRADE GOODS
—AT—LOW GRADE
PRICES
—AT—JACKSON'S

THE JEWELER.

ONE CENT A WORD COLUMN.

HELP WANTED.

Female.

DINING ROOM AND KITCHEN GIRL
wanted at 201 St. Croix avenue

Male.

WANTED—SMART BOY TO SELL CIGARS
and papers at Hotel St. Louis.

FOR RENT.

HOUSE FOR RENT—FURNISHED HOUSE OF
eight rooms, centrally located. Will lease for six months, house and furniture included. Address P. 13 this office.

FOR RENT—A NICE NEW 10 ROOM BRICK
house, with all modern improvements, 129
East Third street. Apply 112 East Third street.

HOUSE FOR RENT—A ROOM HOUSE CORner Fourth avenue and First street. Will lease to buy the carpets, window draperies the stores and furniture. Possession given from first to middle of January 9.
Building.

Barn.

BARN—A GOOD WARM BARN FOR RENT.
211 East Superior street.

LOST.

LOST—A SKINSKIN GLOVE, FINDER will please leave it at 308 Duluth National Bank building.

FINANCIAL.

MONEY TO LOAN—REPRESENTING
eastern capitalists, bankers and a mortgage company. Loans of any size negotiated promptly on low rates of interest.
Updine Room 2 Metropolitan block.

LOANS—WE CAN LOAN $100 OR $100,000.
Without delay, at low rate of interest.
McGregor & Bowles, Room 10, Metropolitan block.

MONEY TO LOAN—GOOD BUILDING
loans a specialty. Insurance carefully written in responsible companies. Cigars & Pride, 322 Duluth National Bank building.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

ARCHITECTS.

E. S. PALMER, L. F. HALL,
J. L. MILLER & HALL, ARCHITECTS AND Superintendents, Room 46 Exchange building, Duluth, Minn.

MCMILLAN & STEPHENS, ARCHITECTS
and superintendents. Office room No.
Exchange building.

MUSIC.

UTAR LESSONS BY A NEW AND ORIGinal method. Easy terms. Harry Harrington, No. 8 Opera block.

MR. H. P. ROBINSON, BASS SOLOIST.
May be seen or addressed at his studio,
No. 8 Miles block to arrange for concert engagements, conducting and teaching.

W. P. SCHILLING—VOICE CULTURE
West.

HATTER AND FURRIER.

S. GELHAAR, N. Y. PRACTICAL FURRIER
All kinds of furs cleaned, altered and repaired. Seal sacs dried and refilled a specialty 201 West Superior street opposite Merchants hotel Duluth Minn.

OPTICIAN AND CONSULTING OC-
ULIST.

PRESERVE YOUR EYE SIGHT—IF YOUR eyes hurt, if you are troubled with old sight, near sight, far sight or astigmatism, try our spectacle and eye glasses. You'll be improved. Our prescriptions correctly filled.
Nell, optician, Room 2, Miles block.

TEACHER.

MISS MINNIE D. HAINES, TEACHER OF Voice Culture. 21 East Third street.

BOYCE & TOTMAN.

Are Headquarters for

TOILET ARTICLES.

HARRIS BROS.,

Three pieces of Acres.
Three double corners in Residence Property.
One West Superior Street lot.
THESE ARE REAL BARGAINS.

208 Duluth National Bank.

MYERS &amp; WHIPPLE,

Careful and Judicious Investments Always Sure to Pay. We have some Bargains on Hand. Money to Loan in any amount. If not on hands can negotiate any amount on good property. Insurance carefully written in the best of companies. Call or write to. Duluth National Bank Building.

C. H. GRAVES & CO.,
INSURANCE

Real Estate &amp; Loans

Acres at the West End.
Acres on the Hill.
Acres in the East End.
Lots in Portland.
150 Lots in Endion.
300 Lots in London.

ESTABLISHED 1869.

WM. C. SHERWOOD &amp; CO.

We have Genuine Bargains in Lots and Blocks near the Car Works at West Duluth. All we ask is for parties to look at our prices, and if prices are not lower than any other property in same vicinity, do not buy of us. Call in. Write
WM. C. SHERWOOD & CO., ROOM 8, METROPOLITAN BL'K.

ECKERT, WILLIAMS &amp; CO.,

WHOLESALE COMMISSION

Corn, Oats, Flour, Mill Feed, Hay, Etc.
Office and Warehouse on Lake Ave., opp. Sutphin's Cold Storage

SEWERS CONNECTED.

P. V. DWYER & BROS.,
PLUMBERS

No. 16 Second Avenue West, Duluth.

ACRES! ACRES!

Now is the time to buy. No firm at Duluth has a better or larger list than we have.
Kimberley & Stryker's Addition—A few Half Blocks left from Clinton Place—One half block at a bargain; easy terms. Lots in both first hands. Money to loan.
Kimberley, Stryker & Manley,
2 & 3 DULUTH NATIONAL BANK BUILDING.

C. B. WOODRUFF,

Wholesale and Retail

LUMBER,

Office, yards and Planting Mill 739 Garfield Ave. (3rd Street) Rice's Point
Complete stock of Dry Lumber, all grades.
Joist, Dimension, Boards, Flooring, Ceiling, Siding and Oak Flooring.
Long Joist 2x10, 2x12 and 2x14, 12 to 26 feet long.
Crowning by machinery a specialty.
Will deliver lumber to any part of the city.
Telephone No. 132. Mail bill of Lumber wanted or call for prices

Murnane & Spencer,
SPORTING HEADQUARTERS.

22 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

CHOICE WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS.

All sporting news received here. All sporting papers on file.

MORISON &amp; MACFARLANE.

32 Exchange Building,

Have Lots and Blocks in the Grassy Point additions, in the immediate vicinity of the West End improvements, for Sale at Great Bargains; also acreage suitable for platting on the St.
Louis Bay, cheap. Will be pleased to show intending purchasers over the ground and furnish all information regarding said properties. Choice Lots and Blocks in Hunter's and Macfarlane's Grassy Point additions are being rapidly taken up, and prices sure to advance. Come and make your purchases early before they are all gone. Are selling lots on building contract and no cash payment required for one year.

HARWOOD'S

City Transportation, Freight & Express Drays

Office 17 First Ave. West.

SPECIAL PRICES DURING THIS MONTH TO BUYERS OF
DRY GOODS,
Carpets, Upholstery Goods,
And Wall Paper.

SEVERAL HUNDRED CLOAKS ARE YET TO BE DISPOSED
OF. THE REDUCTIONS RANGE FROM

25 TO 75 PER CENT

From regular prices, affording an unusual opportunity to secure a reble article at less than manufacturer's cost. An inspection and comparison invited.

Lahn's

THE WAY OUT
OF YOUR DILEMMA
IS TO USE THE HERALD WANT COLUMN.
ONE CENT A WORD DOES IT.

VOL 5, NO. 236

DULUTH EVENING HERALD.

DULUTH, MINN., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1890—FIVE O'CLOCK

TO REMOVE THE DIFFICULTY
USE THE HERALD WANT COLUMN.
ONE CENT A WORD DOES IT.

PRICE TWO CENTS

CLOTHING AND HATS! AT BARGAIN SALE!

The stock of F. I. Breeze is being sold at prices that nobody disputes. If you want the goods the prices
are all right.

4 E. SUPERIOR ST.
Next to Corner of Lake ave.

NOTICE.

As the partnership of M. S. Burrows & Co., expired by limitation on February 25, 1890,
all accounts must be settled by February 1, that the business may be satisfactorily wound up. Our collectors will call on you. All accounts unpaid after this date will be placed with our attorney for collection. We mean what we say and take notice accordingly.

M. S. BURROWS & CO.

ARE YOU Thinking of Investing in a Fine FUR GARMENT?

ARE YOU Going to Get Your Old One Repaired?

You can find the choicest and most varied stock of

FURS

of all kinds that was ever shown in the city. The latest patterns made to fit and made on the premises.
Repairing a special feature of the business.
A call from you is respectfully solicited.

R. KROJANKER,

209 E. Sup. St.

FURRIER.

A. L. KINGMAN.

REAL ESTATE.

207 National Bank Bldg.

Residence Lots that lie beautifully only $125.00.
Bargain in Acres.
Bargains in Business Property.
Bargains in Improved Property.
If you want a bargain call. If you have anything to sell cheap don't fail to see me.

WHERE ARE THE KNIGHTS?

America's Greatest Labor Organization Gradually But Certainly Losing its Membership.

In Chicago Alone, Their Number has Been Reduced From 30,000 to 3,000.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Astounding statements are made by well posted people concerning the decline of the Knights of Labor in this region and if one half of what is said is true the order can never recover its strength and influence in this region. Little more than two years ago there were over thirty thousand Knights in good standing in Chicago. Today there are less, so it is claimed, than three thousand. In support of this allegation facts and figures are given. The stockyards district, which prior to the memorable eight hour fight had twelve thousand members now has less than two hundred. District No. 24, which had 2000 members and 1800 members in good standing, and 1800 members in good standing in 1887 has dropped from 1,600 to 30 and the sheet iron workers assembly has returned the charter within a week because a majority of members could not be gotten together at any meeting. Of the men who have drifted away from the parent organization very few have abandoned trades unionism altogether. Several thousands have joined the various carpenters unions, and a good many have already in their allegiance to Barry's new order. The stock yards men have a strong organization without outside affiliations and are preparing a renewal of the eight hour conflict on May 1.

ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN UPHOLDS

His Action Regarding Dr. McGlynn Approved by Archbishop Elder.
Cleveland, Ohio, Jan. 23.—Archbishop Elder of this Roman Catholic archdiocese, speaking of Archbishop Corrigan putting McGlynn and all the anti-poverty Catholics under the ban of the church, said today: "This only applies to Archbishop Cor-rigan's diocese. Dr. McGlynn and his followers, as I understand it, have placed themselves in opposition to the bishop and all the authority of the church. The bishop has used the word of God to discipline him. This is what every political party would do. They would not resist men who defy all of its authority. I do not expect any trouble with our people in this diocese on account of their anti-poverty sentiments."

Gladiators' Supporters.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—At the result of last week's election in the Gowan department of Lancashire, and also of the extraordinary victories of the Radicals both in the metropolis and large cities generally, the Gladiators have determined to put forth every effort with the view of forcing a general election as early as possible. The Gladiators will not return from abroad for some time to come, but a meeting of his lieutenants will be held in London, at which plans will be agreed upon for making a continuous lullade upon the government in the house of commons. Meanwhile several influential supporters of the "Grand old man" have contributed liberally to a fund with which the Radical agitation is to be kept up in the large centers of population.

A Lottery Man in Trouble.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The Illinois state agent of the Louisiana lottery, James E.
Moore, was today held to the criminal court by Justice Lyon for dealing in tickets. Despite the numerous arrests, he has never yet been convicted, and should that result occur this time, he cannot be fined more than $2,000, the statute providing that the penalty of imprisonment can only be inflicted upon a second or third conviction. Immediately after his arrest Moore was taken to the jail, where he has been introduced in the legislature, and will doubtless be passed, prescribing a penalty of two years imprisonment, and upon the first conviction for advertising, soliciting, or inviting anybody to purchase
a lottery ticket, and on a second offense,
and five to ten years for the third.

Cullum Declared Elected.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 23.—Both houses of the legislature met in joint session today. A comparison of the journals of yesterday showed that Senator Cullum had received a majority of the votes cast in both houses and therefore he was declared elected and re-elected United States senator for the term of six years. The announcement was greeted with loud cheering from the Republicans. The senator was not present to return his thanks for the honor, business having detained him. A dispatch sent to a dispatch was received and read before the adjournment of the joint session.

Absorbing Knowledge.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 22.—The Wisconsin state agent of the Louisiana lottery, James E.
Moore, was today held to the criminal court by Justice Lyon for dealing in tickets. Despite the numerous arrests, he has never yet been convicted, and should
that result occur this time, he cannot be fined more than $2,000, the statute providing that the penalty of imprisonment
can only be inflicted upon a second or third conviction. Immediately after his arrest Moore was taken to the jail, where
he has been introduced in the legislature,
and will doubtless be passed, prescribing a penalty of two years imprisonment, and
upon the first conviction for advertising,
soliciting, or inviting anybody to purchase
a lottery ticket, and on a second offense,
and five to ten years for the third.

Going on a Shopping Trip.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 23.—It is understood that the health of little baby McKee permits. Mrs. Harrison and Mrs.
McKee will make their long contemplated trip to New York next week. They will be gone about ten days and their stay in the metropolis will be devoted to shopping and visiting of both of which they have a good deal to do.

The Patriarchal Circle.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—At the meeting today of the general committee which has in charge the arrangements for the general conclave of the Patriarchal circle, which takes place in thirty next July, it was reported that considerable progress had been made and that according to the outlook the convocation would be the largest and most successful yet held by the order.

A Statue of Grant.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—A private view was given today of the colossal statue of General Grant which Lorado Taft has just completed for the city of Evanston, Ill.
It is a noble, simple yet consistent likeness, and elicited numerous expressions of commendation. Tomorrow it will be sent to South Chicago to be bronzed.

Grover Will Not Interfere.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 23.—The fact that the president has not interfered to mitigate their sentences has been communicated unofficially to Coy and Bernheimer. Both are very much depressed over the news.

PERSONAL MENTION.

L. W. Braden, of Minneapolis, is in the city today.
H. M. Meyers left this morning for a short visit in the east.
J. E. Gage has joined the colony of Fargotes temporarily stopping in Duluth.
A progressive church party is given by Mrs. and Mrs. Hanford Friday evening next.
L. G. Tuttle, of Painesville, Ohio, is looking over his Duluth property for a few days.
J. J. Flaherty and D. T. Henderson, a pair of Chicagoans are looking over Duluth today.
E. J. Palmer and wife, of Memphis, are enjoying delightful Duluth weather for a few days.
Chester A. Congdon, of St. Paul, late United States attorney, is looking over his possessions in this city.
Oler Holden, of the municipal court, is in St. Paul attending a G. A. R. meeting. He will be absent some days.
M. H. Hywater is in St. Paul in attendance on the session of some insurance company in which he is interested.
E. T. Emerson and wife, Kansas City, are in the city for a few days. Mr. Emerson has been mentioned as a probable lessee of the Spaulding hotel, and is here to look it over.

APPOINTMENTS COMMITTEES.

PRESIDENT THOMPSON, OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, APPOINTS REGULAR COMMITTEES.
This noon Secretary Wells of the board of trade posted on the board the standing committees of the board for the ensuing year as announced by President Thompson.
They are as follows:
Finance committee: Messrs. F. S. Dag-get, W. Van Brunt, G. G. Barum, Transportation: Franklin Paine, John McLeod, M. J.
Forbes, Harbor: C. H. Graves, M. J. Forbes, Ward, Ames, Elevator: M. J. Forbes,
F. S. Daggett, Franklin Paine, Telegraph:
J. A. Dewey, W. Van Brunt, J. McLeod,
J. J. Flaherty, G. G. Barum, C. G. Hartman,
F. S. Daggett, Rooms and supplies: Ward,
Ames, O. C. Hartman, G. G. Barum, McLeod, J. A. Dewey, O. C. Hartman,
Ward, Ames, O. C. Hartman.

THE COURT.

At the district court yesterday several criminals were adjudged guilty by the jury.
In the case of Fred Holbar, accused of stealing clothing a verdict of guilty of larceny in the second degree was brought in.
Edwin Johnson was found guilty of selling mortgaged property and was fined and sentenced to a fine of $100. Walter Thompson, who was accused of shooting a St. Croix avenue female blind girl, John Curran was found guilty of stealing a coat from a clothing store dummy. Gust Curran was accused of assault in the first degree.
The court has been busy this morning with additional cases on the criminal side.

A Special Engagement.

Miss Helen Barry will open the Grand Opera house tomorrow evening in her great London success, "A Woman's Stratagem."
London success. "A Woman's Stratagem," is one of the most successful plays of the age. It is a comedy of manners, and is brought before the public Miss Margaret Barry, a woman of great excellence. She is the present manager of the Union Square theater, New York. The following extract is from the St. Paul Dispatch: "Miss Helen Barry as the Countess D'Autreval in "A Woman's Stratagem," is one of the brightest occasions in her experience. The stage goes which stands out, luminous and prominent, from the rest of a season's performances. Majestic and beautiful, exquisite, passionate, wilful, determined, loving and juggling, and perfecting of a thousand women headed in one perfect woman. Her smile is exquisite and her laugh music. The finished grace of her acting and the charm of her manner is the stone of art, which has left no room for poor and barren to add to its richness and finish. The play gives her ample scope for her magnificent powers, and she supports company, instead of furnishing a background, as living and moving parts of Frankford's "The Countess D'Autreval," the Baron de Monchier, J. E. Colville, Gustave de Fragar, Victor de Harman, the Brigadier, and Miss Maud Hope, as Leonie de Villeneuve, are all well up to the mark. A sextette which were well able to give a performance which was flawless, and the most pleasing and complete seen in St. Paul this season. The High school hall is not large, but it is conveniently arranged, and bright and cheerful.

A BIG DEAL WORKED.

A large amount of wheat has just been worked for shipment from the western elevators to Duluth by one or two of the leading grain dealers of this city. It is stated that not less than 500,000 bushels are to come here, under the deal alone in the next few weeks. Though there is a little smaller than that, it is made by the next more or more will be considerably larger than for some months.
Receipts of grain here this morning were 13,975 bushels, shipped 614 bushels, and 13,361 bushels, and 11,015 bushels and shipments of 1,240 bushels came today last year. One car track this morning are 27, all on the Northern Pacific road.

Tomorrow night the Duluth Turn Verein

will give its grand annual masquerade at their hall, corner Third street and Sixth avenue, and the evening will be a grand one. The committee to give its patrons a most enjoyable time. A special committee is appointed to see that no disorderly characters are admitted.
Masquerade at City rink, tomorrow
Thursday, evening.
Are you going to the masquerade at Lake avenue rink tomorrow evening?
If you want anything the Herald's want column can help you out.
If you want to borrow money on your
"real estate" call on S. M. CHANLEY,
At Stewart & Britt's Bank.

$50,000 cash will handle the best bargain

in acres at the West End.
Chicago, Jan. 23.—W. Scott, Duluth U. Nat. Bank.
No better place for an afternoon evening's enjoyment than at the City skating rink on Lake avenue.
We have calls for property on the north shore, between Duluth and Me. Harbor.
RICHARDSON, DAY & CO.

For your wants use the Herald's want

column can help you out.
Remember the masquerade carnival at Lake avenue rink tomorrow evening.
Change of Time
On and after today the Northern Pacific short line trains will leave Duluth superior as follows: 6:30 a. m. West Superior only, 7:12 a. m. 8:30 a. m. 9:45 a. m.
daily, 1:15 p. m. 2:30 p. m. 3:45 p. m.
daily, 3:00 p. m. daily, 4:10 West Superior only, 5:00 p. m. 6:30 p. m. daily, 11:15 West Super only.

Chas. T. Abbott, real estate

office West Duluth.

WASHBURN IS ALL RIGHT.

It is Finally Decided That He is to Be a United States Senator From Minnesota.

The Investigation of the Charges of Bribery Amount to Nothing—
No Positive Evidence.

St. Paul, Jan. 23.—(Special).—The house this forenoon took the following ballot:
Washburn, 50; Durant, 9; Wilson, 2; Clapp,
1; Start, 8. This settles the matter. Gen.
Washburn will be the next United States senator from Minnesota. The house was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning, but immediately took a recess for ten minutes. This morning's session being a continuation of the session of yesterday, prayer and other formalities were dispensed with. During the recess the conversation was lively all around the house. The topic discussed was of course the action of the senate last night, and the probable proceeding of the two houses today. There seemed to be a strong undercurrent feeling against the spirit of investigation that had taken possession of the legislature. After being called to order at the moment, the speaker said that the motion was to proceed to the election of a United States senator. Lane moved to delay until the report of the investigating committee could be heard. Another recess was then taken to 10:40 a. m. At twelve minutes before 11 o'clock the report of the investigating committee was handed to the speaker by the chairman of the committee.
The clerk at once proceeded to read the report. The committee reported that they had examined a large number of witnesses and had gone into the investigation
as far as their time would permit. They had taken into consideration the evidence of every witness, and had been made by over two hundred in behalf of Senator Washburn and Gen. Washburn. The committee had found nothing that incriminated the candidate nominated at the caucus, and had not found any evidence that any member of the house had offered or received any money. After some debate a ballot
was taken with the following result:
The senate met at eight last night
and spent the entire evening in listening to the bribery committee. A resolution was adopted expediting Senator Washburn.
The clerk at once proceeded to read the
report. The committee reported that they had examined a large number of witnesses and had gone into the investigation
as far as their time would permit. They
had taken into consideration the evidence
of every witness, and had been made by over
two hundred in behalf of Senator Washburn
and Gen. Washburn. The committee had found nothing that incriminated the candidate nominated at the caucus, and had not found any evidence that any member of the house had offered or received any
money. After some debate a ballot
was taken with the following result:
The senate met at eight last night
and spent the entire evening in listening to the bribery committee. A resolution was adopted expediting Senator Washburn.
The clerk at once proceeded to read the
report. The committee reported that they had examined a large number of witnesses and had gone into the investigation
as far as their time would permit. They
had taken into consideration the evidence
of every witness, and had been made by over
two hundred in behalf of Senator Washburn
and Gen. Washburn. The committee had found nothing that incriminated the candidate nominated at the caucus, and had not found any evidence that any member of the house had offered or received any
money. After some debate a ballot
was taken with the following result:

THE FORMAL BALLOT.

The joint ballot of the Minnesota legislature for United States senator resulted as follows: Washburn, 107; Durant, 9; Wilson, 2; Clapp, 1; Start, 8; Bowen, 1; Bowen, 1;
Judge Ross, 1; whole number of votes cast, 141; necessary to a choice, 71.

MUST COMPLY WITH THE LAW.

The Interstate Commerce Commission
After the Chicago Roads.
CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—When the interstate commerce commissioners, Cooley and Morrison, inter-state commerce commission, last week made a tour of inspection of the roads of the various roads entering in this city, they expected that their recommendations would be complied with, and illegitimate and unlawful practices resorted to in transacting their passenger business be abandoned. They have learned, however, that the condition of affairs has but little improved since then. They have, therefore, concluded to make another trip to this city and adopt measures that will compel the railroads to comply with the law. They are expected to arrive here next Monday to investigate.

Small Pox in Ann Arbor.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Jan. 23.—A student in the school of pharmacy at the university is down with small pox. He was vaccinated the day that he was exposed to the disease and it is hoped that the case will not be serious. He has been removed to the hospital to prevent the spread of the disease. A great scare exists among the students. Doctors are on over-run with applications for vaccination.

The Hoodler Jury.

New York, Jan. 23.—The full routine of securing a jury for "Hoodler" Clegg's trial was resumed today. The first panel of 100 was exhausted this morning after the names of the names called. In new panels were the names of J. Gould, and Herman Oltichs. They did not answer and are liable to be held over for another trial. The names of the first jury had been obtained.
Stanford is all right.

A Strike Threatened.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 23.—A meeting of 14,000 coke workers in the Connellsville region will be held at Scottsdale, Saturday, to consider the advisability of striking if their scale is not accepted by the operators.

Governor McDonald's Funeral.

EGANADA, Mich., Jan. 23.—Lieutenant Governor McDonald's funeral takes place today Governor Lucius W. Michigan legislature, and the city officials will take a formal part in the ceremonies.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Indications for twenty-four hours. Minnesota, Dakota, Iowa fair, colder and northwesterly winds.

The City Rink.

On Lake avenue is centrally located, has every convenience, improper characters not allowed. Everything favorable for your amusement. Open every day and evening.

Money to Loan.

Parties who contemplate building building blocks and desire large loans can be readily accommodated by Chas. T. Abbott, real estate
office West Duluth.

IN CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—On motion of Mr.
Hann, the concurrent resolution for the counting of the electoral vote was taken up and passed. It provides that the two houses of congress shall assemble in the hall of the house of representatives Wednesday day the 13th day of February, 1890, at one o'clock, and that the president of the senate shall be presiding officer; that two persons shall be appointed tellers on the part of the senate and two on the part of the house of representatives, to make a list of votes as they shall be declared; that the results shall be delivered to the president of the senate, who shall announce the state of the vote and the percentage elected to the two houses assembled as aforesaid, and which shall be deemed a declaration of persons elected president and vice president of the United States and to gather with a list of the votes, he entered on the journals of the two houses.
Congress on the bill to amend the interstate commerce act held a two hours session this morning and made some progress in consideration of the various amendments. From the spirit shown in the conference, it is believed that a basis of agreement will be reached without difficulty.

HIGH LICENSE.

That is What a Majority of the People of Massachusetts are in Favor of.
Boston, Jan. 23.—Some interesting figures showing the tendency of Massachusetts on the question of licensing the sale of intoxicating liquor were submitted to the legislature yesterday by the secretary of the state. 1886, out of 349 cities and towns only 74, or 21 per cent, voted to grant licenses. The popular majority against license showed 50.9 per cent of the people of the state to be in favor of a policy of prohibition. In 1887 with the same number of cities and towns, sixty-three voted yes.
The majority against license had become 55.5 per cent of the total. The total vote was 16.6 per cent greater than in 1886. In 1886 when a number of cities and towns were 55.5 or 22 per cent of the vote, the total vote increased 2.5 per cent in the year, and 53.45 per cent was in favor of license. This is quite a setback for prohibitionists.

IN THE PIE.

J. J. Hill's Finger as Manipulated in Washington last week.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—President Hill, of the Manitoba railroad, who has been in the city some days, is showing his fine
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolidation office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the
office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolida-
tion office erected at Tracy, thus doing
both. Mr. Hill's finger is showing his
Italian hand about the interior department on the subject of the proposed
consolidation of the railroads. In the office, Mr. Hill has asked Secretary
Vilas to locate the offices at Marshall,
while Mr. Lind wants the consolidation office erected at Tracy,

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

The handsome stained glass windows of the Spaulding house office are being put in. Miss Helen Barry and company will arrive in town by the limited at 7:40 o'clock.

Passenger travel is very light just now on all roads leading east and south. There is some tourist business for the south, but it does not amount to much.

Minimum temperature this morning was 25 degrees above. The day has been smoky and dull. Cooler atmosphere and northerly winds are looked for.

At the registration yesterday but little business was done. Next Tuesday is the final day and must be improved by those who want to vote and are now unregistered in their home precincts.

Famous Helen Barry appears at the opera house Friday and Saturday. She was booked for St. Paul but could not play there, because of the destruction of the opera house by fire, and secured dates here as a substitute.

The Herald is indebted to Secretary Phelps, of the chamber of commerce, for a series of maps showing graphically the diplomatic and consular stations of the United States in all parts of the world. The charts are valuable and interesting.

A number of musical people went to Superior last night to assist in the benefit concert given there by Mr. Knapp. Among those who went were Messrs. Halsey, Halsey, Hopkins, Messrs. Johnson, Schmidt and others.

The Herald sold a very large street edition last night on account of the expected senatorial caucus in St. Paul. There was general hope expressed that the bribery investigation might turn out in such a way as to defeat Mr. Washburn for the senate.

All office furniture for the new National bank of commerce has been put into the corner store of the Spaulding and now awaits the legal formula which must be gone through before the bank can open its doors. This, it is understood, it will do in February.

As rather expected by a good many who knew his character and career, Burton S. Parsons, attorney by courtesy has skipped out. He has been previously connected with some rather unsavory scrap on Duluth and the general public will waste no feeling over him.

The last great case of the St. Paul, Brainerd & Northwestern against the Duluth & Winnipeg, will come up before Judge Stearns on a change of venue from St. Paul on Friday. This is a most important case, and on it hinge matters of great value to Duluth and the north-west.

Ice is being cut in the slip near the foot of Fifth avenue west for Armour & Co and the Duluth Packing company. In No. 1 slip of the St. Paul & Duluth road a lot is being cut out for the Suptin cold storage house and for Booth Packing Co. In all about two thousand tons are now being taken out.

At the annual meeting of the Iron Bay Foundry company, of Marquette, held there yesterday, the question of removing to Duluth was voted on and a committee was appointed to make final arrangements. This is the corporation whose intention of coming to Duluth was published in the Herald some days ago, and which information was copied in the morning papers the next day, with the added information correct as usual for the morning papers, that the company would locate at Lester river.

Washington dispatches announce that Marquette people have secured from Postmaster General Dickinson an order for the establishment of a railway mail service over the western division of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic between Westport and Duluth, a distance of 240 miles. This is a through mail service between Marquette and Duluth. An inspector had reported adversely on the matter on the ground that there were no regular trails. The service to commence February 1st and will be greatly appreciated by people all along the line of the road, especially in the homestead district.

The season of sliding accidents has begun. Last evening Edward Thompson ran into a carriage and broke his leg. Fortunately the carriage contained a doctor who was able to set the bone at once. Sliding on frequent avenues is a dangerous practice and should be stopped. There is always the great danger of running into sleighs and teams crossing the avenues on level streets, and which cannot in many cases be guarded against by any vigilance on the part of drivers. Third and Fourth streets west are the safest places for sliding and the police should confine the sport to them or to avenues removed from the business centers.

IN FOND REMEMBRANCE
NEVA ESTELLA OWEN, died Dec. 27th, 1880.

One little star in the beautiful west
One little window of light,
One little gleam from the Kingdom of rest,
One little beacon tonight,
Up through the pathway of stars she has gone
Up from the shadow to welcome the morn:
Up from the sorrows of earth's estate,
Safely within the golden gate.

One little tress of her silken hair
Over my fingers I twine,
One little blossom tenderly fair
Gone to the heavenly clime:
Gone from this earth of pain
Gone where partings come not again
Gone to the home for which we wait:
Safely within the golden gate.

One little flower she plucked long ago,
One little tress that she wore,
One little grave out in the snow
That never was there before:
Gone where the peony gates are ajar Gone where the many mansions are Gone where our vanished darlings wait:
Safely within the heavenly gate.

A FRIEND.

NOTICE
In condemnation proceedings for widening Superior street from Fourteenth avenue east to northern city limits.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned commissioners appointed by the Common Council of the City of Duluth, to view the premises and award damages in condemnation proceedings for the widening of Superior street from Fourteenth avenue east to northern city limits, which includes a portion of all the blocks, lots and parcels of land on both sides of said Superior street between the points above named, will meet on Thursday, January 23rd, 1880, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day at the office of the City Clerk to hear all parties interested, and from there proceed to view the premises and assess or award the damages for the property to be taken.

Dated January 19, 1880.
ATTEST:
Geo. H. Graypool, Commissioner.
Bernard Silberstein, Jan. 17/80.

THE LADIES OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Will serve Lunch and Supper on Wednesday the 23rd in the vacant room of the St. Louis Hotel building.

Lunch served from 12 till 2 p.m.
Supper from 5:30 till 8 o'clock.
50 cents for each meal.

Try The MAGNOLIA CIGAR.

AT—
BOYCE & TOTMAN'S.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. No competitor in the world can equal it. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall Street, New York.

JUST ARRIVED!
25 DOZEN OF THE CELEBRATED
DUNLAP HATS

THE LATEST STYLES
---AT---
J. T. CONDON'S,

Hatter & Men's Furnisher,
No. 333 Opera Bk., - DULUTH, MINN.

A. FITGER & CO.'S LAKE SUPERIOR
BREWERY

Is the largest in the State of Minnesota outside of the Twin Cities.

J. B. SUTPHIN
COLD STORAGE

Wholesale dressed meats,
Poultry and Provisions, Stock
yards and abattoir at West Duluth. Dealer in draft and driving horses.

GLASS BLOCK LAUNDRY.
HIGH CLASS,
DOMESTIC FINISH
Special Rates on Lace Curtains and Family Washing. Centrally located.
W. E. KERNS, Prop.
102 West Superior street.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR SLIPS AND FALLS!
Moral: Insure in the Travelers.

WENDELL P. MOSHER, Agent.
Under Duluth Nat. Bank.

AMUSEMENTS
GRAND OPERA HOUSE
J. T. CONDON, Lessee and Mgr.

SPECIAL!
THREE NIGHTS ONLY!
Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 24, 25 and 26
Distinguished English Actress,
HELEN BARRY!

Supported by FRANK MORDAUNT.
And a powerful Dramatic company, under the management of J. M. HILL.

Miss Barry will appear as the COUNTESS D'AUBRAY, in her great London Success,
"A WOMAN'S STRATAGEM."
A sparkling comedy in three acts, adapted from the French of Eugene Scribe's "Batailles des Dames." Played by Miss Barry upwards of 100 times throughout Europe.
Seats on sale Thursday morning, Jan. 24, at Condon's Hat Store.

People's Theater.
HARRY HARNETT, Prop. and Mgr.
Geo. E. Kent, Assistant Manager.
H. A. Hines, Treasurer.
ARTHUR NEWMAN, Stage Manager.
Frederic H. Hines, Leader of Orchestra.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 25,
GRAND
20-ROUND
GLOVE CONTEST.

For the Colored Heavy Championship of America and a $500 purse and entire gate receipts between Billy Wilson, the Colored Champion, and Frank Taylor, (Black Frank).
This contest is on its merits. A rare treat to lovers of athletic sports. General admission 75c. Remember the date and go.

The finest Line of Optical goods in the city at
BOYCE & TOTMAN'S.

TOILET ARTICLES.

HIGH GRADE GOODS

—AT—
LOW GRADE PRICES

—AT—JACKSON'S

THE JEWELER.

ONE CENT A WORD COLUMN.

HELP WANTED.

Female.
GIRL WANTED—A SERVANT GIRL
wanted for general house work. Apply at 206 West Second street.

DINING ROOM AND KITCHEN GIRL
wanted at 301 St. Croix avenue

Male.
WANTED—SMART BOY TO SELL CIGARS
and papers at Hotel St. Louis.

FOR RENT.
ROOM—NICELY FURNISHED ROOM FOR rent cheap at 224 Fourth avenue.

Houses.
FOR RENT—FURNISHED HOUSE OF
eight rooms, centrally located. Will lease for six months, house and furniture included piano. Address P. this office.

FOR RENT—A NEW TWO ROOM BRICK
house, with all modern improvements, 135
East Third street. Apply at 112 East Third street.

HOUSE FOR RENT—8 ROOM HOUSE CORner Fourth avenue east and First street.
Leases to buy the carpets, window draperies and stores now in the house. Possession given from first to middle of January G. G.
Hartley, room 202 Duluth Union National building.

FINANCIAL.
MONEY TO LOAN—REPRESENTING
eastern capitalists, bankers and a mortgage company. Loans of any size negotiated promptly on low rate of interest.
N. J. Upham, Room 7 Metropolitan block.

LOANS—WE CAN LOAN $100 OR $100,000,
without delay, at low rate of interest.
McGregor & Bowes, Room 10, Metropolitan
block.

MONEY TO LOAN—GOOD BUILDING
loans a specialty. Insurance carefully written in responsible companies. Chicago & Prairie, 32 Duluth National Bank building.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

ARCHITECTS.
E. S. PALMER, ARCHT. & P. B. HALL, DALLMER & HALL, ARCHITECTS AND Superintendents, Room 46 Exchange building, Duluth, Minn.

MCMILLAN & STEBBINS, ARCHITECTS
and superintendents. Office room No.
Exchange building.

MUSIC.
4 UTTAR LESSONS BY A NEW AND ORIGinal method. Easy terms. Harry Harrington, No. 8 Opera block.

MR. H. P. ROBINSON, BASS SOLOIST.
May be seen or addressed at his studio,
No. 5 Miles block, to arrange for concert engagements, conducting and teaching.

W. P. SCHILLING—VOICE CULTURE
West. and piano study, 115 Third avenue
west.

HATTER AND FURRIER.
S. GELHAAR, N. Y. PRACTICAL FURRIER
All kinds of furs cleaned, altered and re-pated. Seal accures dried and rolled a specialty 201 West Superior street opposite Merchants hotel Duluth Minn.

OPTICIAN AND CONSULTING OC-
ULIST.
PRESERVE YOUR EYE SIGHT—IF YOUR eyes hurt, if you are troubled with sight, near sight, far sight or astigmatism, try our spectacle and eye glasses. Results guaranteed. Double's prescriptions correctly filled.
Nell, optician, Room E, Hunter block.

TEACHER.
MISS MINNIE B. RAINEY, TEACHER OF Voice Culture. 31 East Third street.

BOYCE & TOTMAN.
Are Headquarters for
TOILET ARTICLES.

HARRIS BROS.,

Three pieces of Acres.
Three double corners in Residence Property.
One West Superior Street lot.
THESE ARE REAL BARGAINS.
206 Duluth National Bank.

MYERS & WHIPPLE,
Careful and Judicious Investments Always Sure to Pay. We have some Bargains on Hand. Money to Loan in any amount. If not on hands can negotiate any amount on good property. Insurance carefully written in the best of companies. Call or write to Duluth National Bank Building.

C. H. GRAVES & CO.,
INSURANCE

Real Estate & Loans

Acres at the West End.
Acres on the Hill.
Acres in the East End.
Lots in Portland.
150 Lots in Endion.
300 Lots in London.

ESTABLISHED 1869.

WM. C. SHERWOOD & CO.
We have Genuine Bargains in Lots and Blocks near the Car Works at West Duluth. All we ask is for parties to look at our prices, and if prices are not lower than any other property in same vicinity, do not buy of us. Call in. Write
WM. C. SHERWOOD & CO., ROOM 8, METROPOLITAN BL'K.

ECKERT, WILLIAMS & CO.,
WHOLESALE COMMISSION
AND DEALERS IN
Corn, Oats, Flour, Mill Feed, Hay, Etc.

Office and Warehouse on Lake Ave., opp. Sutphin's Cold Storage

SEWERS CONNECTED.

P. V. DWYER & BROS.,
PLUMBERS
No. 16 Second Avenue West, Duluth.

ACRES! ACRES!
Now is the time to buy. No firm at Duluth has a better or larger list than we have.
Kimberley & Stryker's Addition—A few Half Blocks left from first hands.
Clinton Place—One half block at a bargain; easy terms. Lots in both these handsome additions cheap. Money to loan.
Kimberley, Stryker & Manley,
5 & 6 DULUTH NATIONAL BANK BUILDING.

C. B. WOODRUFF,
Wholesale and Retail
LUMBER,
Office, yards and Planing Mill 739 Garfield Ave. (3rd Street) Rice's Point
Complete stock of Dry Lumber, all grades.
Joist Dimension, Boards, Flooring, Ceiling, Siding and Oak Flooring.
Long Joist 2x10, 2x12 and 2x14, 12 to 26 feet long.
Crowning by machinery a specialty.
Will deliver lumber to any part of the city.
Telephone No. 132. Mail bill of Lumber wanted or call for prices

Murnane & Spencer,
SPORTING HEADQUARTERS.
22 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.
CHOICE WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS.
All sporting news received here. All sporting papers on file.

MORISON & MACFARLANE,
32 Exchange Building,
Have Lots and Blocks in the Grassy Point additions, in the immediate vicinity of the West End improvements, for Sale at Great Bargains; also acreage suitable for platting on the St.
Louis Bay, cheap. Will be pleased to show intending purchasers over the ground and furnish all information regarding said properties. Choice Lots and Blocks in Hunter's and Macfarlane's Grassy Point additions are being rapidly taken up, and prices
sure to advance. Come and make your purchases early before they are all gone. Are selling lots on building contract and no cash payment required for one year.

HARWOOD'S
City Transportation, Freight & Express Drays
Office 17 First Ave. West.

SPECIAL PRICES DURING THIS MONTH TO BUYERS OF DRY GOODS,
Carpets, Upholstery Goods,
And Wall Paper.

SEVERAL HUNDRED CLOAKS ARE YET TO BE DISPOSED
OF. THE REDUCTIONS RANGE FROM
25 TO 75 PER CENT

From regular prices, affording an unusual opportunity to secure a reble article at less than manufacturer's cost. An inspection and comparison invited.

Lahn's

Heat opened this morning excited and almost panicky, with numerous sellers and almost lots of May eagerly offering to underbid each other, with buyers holding out until a decline of 5c per bushel from yesterday's close had been conceded, when there was good business at 5c advance. After this price was steadily bid up 2½c before more wheat could be purchased. For an hour the market was very firm, with buyers freely bidding 3c above the opening, but no sellers. When trading again commenced at 10 o'clock and the last hour was very dull on a decline and was very easy at 1c above the opening, and 3c.

Cash was here was dull and neglected, as were the other lower all around to sell. The market was better at 10:30 A. M., No. 1 hard northern at 87c. January closed at 90c; No. 2 at 86c. February closed nominal at 1.00. May opened very low, and badly demoralized at 1.15. The price which prevailed last week was reported, followed by sales at 1.15½, advanced to 1.15½ when the crowd turned over, and then down to 1.15. At 1.15, later it went up to 1.17½. The market was quiet and lower with sales just at the close at 1.16. June no trading, closed at 1.16.

PREDICTIONS.

WEATHER PROPHET KELLOGG MAKES FOREMORE OF HIS REMARKABLE PREDICTIONS.

Weather Prophet Kellogg makes the following predictions for February: There

Bradley & Hunford are now located in the city of New York, having moved from their old quarters.

Ladies of the First Baptist church, gave dinner in the vacant store in the St. Louis Hotel, on the 10th and 15th of Nov. per there this evening. They were overrun with company at noon.

Raymond, the black colored man who fleeced several Duluth business men of small sums, was sentenced this morning to the penitentiary for one year and thanked the judge for the light sentence.

Commissioners for the condemnation of son make a report to the court regarding the really wanted. Their labors have been rewarded by the fact that they are not even for condemnation commissioners.

Small Fox in Ann Arbor.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Jan. 10.—A student in the school of pharmacy at the university is down with small pox. He was vaccinated the day that he was exposed to the disease, but the vaccination, it is feared, will not be serious. He has been sent to the pest house and every possible precaution is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease. A great scare exists among the students. Doctors are overrun with applications for vaccination.

The Century Dictionary.

The late Mr. Holland, the predecessor of Mr. Glider in the chair of the Century Dictionary, suggested to Mr. Roswell Smith, president of The Century Company, the advisability of publishing a new Century Dictionary and continuing its publication in New York.

was impracticable. But the attention of the management having been thus called to the subject, the following plan was adopted:—In employing the resources of the company, they some time afterward purchased the services of a competent person to make the new revision of Dr. John Ogilvie's work. Their first purpose was only to strike out the superfluous words, and to add new words and definitions in American usage; they soon found it necessary to insert much new and original matter, and ultimately they were obliged to employ a number of workmen together, and began practically anew.

In this way was begun the compilation of The American Dictionary of the English Language, and the work is not yet finished, though it has so far approached completion that the Dictionary is now being printed in the year 1889. The contract for the paper to be used in the work has already been let, and it is probable that within the next six months the work will be ready for the press to be issued. The general scope of the work is a combination of the uses of a dictionary and process of compilation in London, it is the most elaborate undertaking of the kind so far projected either in England or America. Mr. Smith states that the cost will be upward of half a million dollars.—New York Star.

—

SALE OF SCHOOL HOUSE.

Bids will be received by the undersigned on Friday, February 1st, at the office of the Board of Education, High School Building, for the purchase of the old Franklin school building and building must be removed immediately. Possession will be given February 15th, and the building must be removed immediately thereafter. The black boards and all school furniture and reserves will be sold by cheque for cash must accompany each bid. The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

ALFRED LE RICHEUX,
Secretary.

BUSINESS COLLEGE
O—AND—O
SHORTHAND INSTITUTE
Open day and evening.
In Parsons new block on Superior street.!

---

West Duluth

Land Co.'s Lots.

Across East.
Across West.
Lots in all Districts of Duluth Proper.
Bargains! Bargains! Bargains!

Look at my List.

E. W. MARKEL,
Room 5 Opera Block

CLAN STEWART SPREAD.

THE PROGRAM FOR TOMORROW EVENING'S BANQUET BY THE CLAN STEWART. The forty-eight active members of Clan Stewart, Duluth's largest organization among Scotchmen and their immediate descendants, have prepared an elaborate program for the first anniversary banquet of the clan. A number of guests have been invited and the banquet will be held at the hotel at 8 o'clock.

GRAND MARCH—MYPERS.

Marching in the Grand March—MYPERS. The program for the banquet is as follows:

Marching in the Grand March—MYPERS. The program for the banquet is as follows:

Marching in the Grand March—MYPERS. The program for the banquet is as follows:

BETHLEHEM CONCERT.

The following are those who will take part in the second Bethlehem concert, which will be a concert given next Tuesday evening.

Violin—Prof. H. W. Johnson.
Piano—Miss M. A. Johnson.
Soprano—Miss M. A. Johnson.
Tenor—Miss M. A. Johnson.
Bass—Miss M. A. Johnson.

The Helen Barry Company.

The destruction of the St. Paul Opera House has resulted in giving to Duluth three nights of entertainment of the first order, beginning tonight (Monday) when the famous English actress and her company will appear before a Duluth audience.

For Sale.

Five heavy horses.
DULUTH STREET RAILWAY CO.

For Rent.

For rent 8 room house corner Fourth avenue east and First street. Leases to buy carpets, window draperies and stoves now in the house. Possession given from first to middle of January. G. G. Hartley, room 202 Duluth Union National building.

Excursion Tickets South.

"The North Western Line"—Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad will sell tickets to many of the principal points in the south at greatly reduced rates on following dates:

December 15th, January 15th and March 15th and 25th. Tickets will be good to return within 60 days from date of sale, and privilege of stop over at points of Ohio river. Call at city or depot office of "The North Western Line."

General Agent.

One of the best serial stories ever published in "Miss Brewster" by the author of "Robert Blumens." A portion of this story is now appearing daily in the columns of the HERALD and affords a rare literary treat to its readers.

Solid Vestibule Trains.

run over the Michigan Central, "the Niagara Falls Route," between Chicago and Buffalo. These trains are not only equipped with the finest Wagner palace sleeping-cars, but are made thoroughly complete by having vestibuled dining, smoking, first-class and baggage cars, and although constituting the principal points of the Michigan Central, carry all classes of passengers without extra charge. These trains carry through vestibuled sleeping cars between Chicago and Hudson River railroad, and between Chicago and Boston, via N. Y. Central and Boston & Albany railroads. The vestibuled "limited" also carries through sleeper, Chicago to Toronto (via Canadian Pacific), where connection is made with parlor-car for Montreal. Accommodations secured at the Michigan Central ticket office, No. 67 Clark street, corner Randolph, and depot, foot of Lake street Chicago.

Excursions to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

For the convenience of those who desire to visit St. Paul or Minneapolis at low rates, the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway arrange a series of mid-winter excursions from all stations on its line in Minnesota and Dakota to Minneapolis or St. Paul and return at one fare for the round trip, tickets to be on sale January 22nd, 24th, 26th, 28th and 31st, good to return up to and including February 23rd, 1889.

Parties desiring to take advantage of these very low excursion rates should apply to their nearest St. Paul, Minneapolis &amp; Manitoba railway ticket agent through tickets and general information regarding advantages offered passengers by this great Northwest railway system of Minnesota and Dakota.

Midwinter Excursions.

On January 22, 24, 26, 28 and 31, "The Northwestern Line"—Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad will sell low excursion tickets to St. Paul, Minneapolis and Dakota to be on or before February 23rd at one fare for the round trip $4.55.

This is "The Pullman Car" route to above cities. Tickets on sale at city office, 112 West Superior street, at passenger depot, foot Fifth avenue and at passenger depot, foot Fifth avenue and at passenger depot, foot Fifth avenue.

Geo. M. Sarrin.
General Agent.

West Duluth property.

Chas. T. Abbott.

ALL OF CLAY.

Turn, turn, my wheel! Turn round and round, Without a pause, whirling round and round, To spin the flying world away!

WITHOUT A DAILY PAPER.

It was the beginning of the year, and Mr. Archibald Wise had made up his mind that he must economize somewhere. After debating the matter for some time he concluded to give up taking regularly a daily paper. Mr. Wise ventured a renunciation: "Why not give up every person's expense?" he said, "instead of hitting upon a clearing which will affect the entire family? Clearly, for instance, I have often thought it would be a positive benefit could you do without a paper?"

Mr. Wise was a kind husband and father, but, like many another man, once he had resolved upon a certain thing he was not easily turned aside. He was a kind husband and father, but, like many another man, once he had resolved upon a certain thing he was not easily turned aside. He was a kind husband and father, but, like many another man, once he had resolved upon a certain thing he was not easily turned aside.

At first Mr. Wise carried home a little thin substitute for the old favorite nearly every night, but by degrees even that came less and less frequently. When he located to his wife that he really got the news almost as completely as ever by watching the bulletins and hearing men talk, she replied rather dryly that men did have considerable advantage over women in the matter of getting news without paying for it. They could stand and gaze at pleasure at great scrolls pasted on the side of newspaper buildings and glean a good deal from other men. Yes, it was a real sharp way to economize, and losing much, cheap and perfectly nice, she supposed.

Although Mrs. Wise's manner was tranquil as a summer sea, yet her words ruffled and irritated her husband; and if truth were known, it was not all quite smooth sailing for Mr. Wise. He did not actually quarrel with the station or horse cars empty handed, among groups of men all of whom, except himself, had open papers in their hands; and he resorted to the expedient of carrying a folded paper in the breast pocket of his coat, which might appear as if he had a paper, which presumably had already been purchased. One evening as he was hurrying toward the station, a little ragged fellow, with papers under his arm, squinted up into his face and cried:

"What collision?" asked Mr. Wise. "Oh, you buy the paper and find out," said the urchin, his lips in the air and his little gray eye held out for pennies. "I have a paper," said Mr. Wise, glancing toward his breast pocket. "Get your own paper," said the urchin, persisted the boy; "it's a special in my paper; better have one, sonny?"

But Mr. Wise hesitatedly asked all counsel from such a source, and hurried on. On the train he seated himself between acquaintances, who looked up from their papers to exchange greetings. "Bad news this evening," said one. "Yes, quite a collision," replied Mr. Wise. "Ah, I hadn't seen that," said his friend; "where do you find it?"

NOTICE.

In condemnation proceedings for widening Superior street from Fourteenth avenue east to northern city limits.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned commissioners appointed by the Common Council of the City of Duluth, to view the premises and award damages in condemnation proceedings for the widening of Superior street from Fourteenth avenue east to northern city limits, will hold a public hearing at the office of the City Clerk, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the office of the City Clerk, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the office of the City Clerk, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

A. FITGER &amp; CO.'S

LAKE SUPERIOR

BREWERY

Is the largest in the State of Minnesota outside of the Twin Cities.

J. B. SUTPHIN

COLD

STORAGE

Wholesale dressed meats,

Poultry and Provisions, Stock

yards and abattoir at West

Duluth. Dealer in draft and driving horses.

M. K. ELLIOT'S BATTERY

IN A BOTTLE

Electric Headache,

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

NOTICE.

In condemnation proceedings for widening Superior street from Fourteenth avenue east to northern city limits.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned commissioners appointed by the Common Council of the City of Duluth, to view the premises and award damages in condemnation proceedings for the widening of Superior street from Fourteenth avenue east to northern city limits, will hold a public hearing at the office of the City Clerk, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the office of the City Clerk, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the office of the City Clerk, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

A. FITGER &amp; CO.'S

LAKE SUPERIOR

BREWERY

Is the largest in the State of Minnesota outside of the Twin Cities.

J. B. SUTPHIN

COLD

STORAGE

Wholesale dressed meats,

Poultry and Provisions, Stock

yards and abattoir at West

Duluth. Dealer in draft and driving horses.

M. K. ELLIOT'S BATTERY

IN A BOTTLE

Electric Headache,

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

Colic in the head, toothache and Rheumatism.

We guarantee it to contain a perfect Electric

Headache, neuralgia, hysteria, Catarrh,

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

Seven real estate transfers were filed this morning, consideration $12,925.

A real estate and insurance partnership has been formed by W. J. Jones and H. M. King.

At the annual meeting of the Minnesota regiment of uniform rank, of K. P., held in St. Paul yesterday, J. K. Shaw of this city was promoted from major to lieutenant colonel.

The waiters of the Glass Block restaurant gave a ball last evening, which was well attended and an enjoyable affair. It was not a success, as mentioned by a morning paper.

Joseph L. Colby, the new president of Wacousta Central road, is interested with Captain McDougall, of Duluth, in the newly incorporated American Steel Barge company, which is to build vessels.

The Superior and Duluth Electric company has filed a bond mortgage of $100,000 at Superior, the money to be used in enlarging and extending their plant there and covering franchise and property of all kinds.

Tonight the grand masquerade given by the Duluth Turn Verein will come off at Turner hall, corner Third street and Sixth avenue east. A most enjoyable time is promised. No disorderly characters admitted.

A misdirected blast on West First street, west of Tenth avenue yesterday, sent broken rock flying through several buildings, among which was the Wesleyan church. Contractor Dwyer has settled all damage claims.

The police are evicting the women of prostitution from Superior street and other uptown haunts, and sending them to their old quarters on the point. A number have already been ordered out and more to follow soon.

In the divorce case of Hattie L. Buel against Frank L. Buel, the St. Paul court grants the plaintiff a decree, also $500 alimony, $50 for attorney's fees and $8 per month for the support of the child. The grounds for action were failure to support and failure on the part of the defendant to acknowledge plaintiff as his wife.

If the signatures which have lately been placed on the petitions that have been circulated and submitted asking the legislature to submit a constitutional prohibition amendment to the people, are taken as a sure indication of the sentiment of the signers, there are a very large number of believers in constitutional prohibition in Duluth.

The Duluth Life Society, through its attorney is suing delinquent policy holders for the payment of assessments, the sum so obtained to be used in paying one or two death claims that matured before the company went into insolvency. A later insurance circular gives the assets of this company as $22 million on the dollar of its liabilities.

The first Duluth residence to be lighted with electricity is that of Frank Burke Jr., which was illuminated Tuesday evening for the first time. The work of putting in fixtures, which was done by the Electric Light & Power Company, is, says Mr. Burke, the finest he has ever seen anywhere. The same company is up the new Congregational church for the first time last night.

There is said to be a mammoth water power scheme in process of incubation, in which a number of Duluth companies are interested and which would, if it could be carried out, make the St. Louis river water power available for use almost to the city limits. In connection with this it is stated among the learned, as usual about this time of year, that the St. Louis River Water Power company intends to improve and build its first dam this year. This first dam has been so long in coming that mere mention of it damps the company in the minds of most people.

If there is anything you want and don't know how to get it, try the Herald's want column.

Dwyer's Oyster House.
On and after New Year we will close at midnight. We wish our friends to get their oysters before that time.

A Water Color Bed Quilt.
Several Lynde (Conn.) ladies and their friends have made for a church fair in Florida a block designed for a bed quilt, representing the state of Connecticut by counties, each county having some reminiscence elaborately executed in water colors on silk. Litchfield county shows a large clock in one corner and a clockmaker with his kit of tools, suggestive of Connecticut's first clock, which was made in that county. Hartford county has the coat of arms and "Qui transtulit sustinet" handsomely painted, and the thirteen stars showing Connecticut one of the thirteen original states. Toland county has the birthplace of Nathan Hale. Windham county represents the "battle of the frogs." Middlesex county has a view of Long Island sound and the Lady Fenwick tomb. New Haven county is a humorous representation of the old blue laws and a view of the steeples on the green at New Haven. Fairfield county represents Putnam's ride, and New London county shows Gorton monument and Fort Griswold.

Telegraphing Cheaper Than Writing.
There has lately been invented a new system of synchronism which, it is claimed, will make it cheaper to telegraph messages than to mail them. Dr. J. Harris Rogers, of Washington, D. C., is the inventor, and he claims that the world will be almost revolutionized by his discovery. The new system, Mr. Rogers says, reduces the English alphabet to ten elementary characters. The messages are prepared by means of a machine resembling a typewriter and manipulated in the same manner. With the use of ten keys, one for each character, any desirable message can be written. A list of the new apparatus was held in New York, and a message of seventy-six words sent over in twenty-five seconds and printed upon a tape in plain Roman characters. The inventor says that he can by this system make one wire do the work that ten do now by the system in vogue.—Frank Lee's Newspaper.

Toys for Great Britain.
Great Britain gets about 2500,000 worth of foreign toys every year. Now, as it is reckoned that there are rather more than 15,000,000 of children in the United Kingdom 15 years old and under, it follows that the output for foreign toys is not much more than 9 pence per child. Most of these articles come from Germany, which sends to British dealers toys of the value of £250,000 a year. Holland is second, with £125,000 worth; France follows with £90,000 worth, while Belgium is a fairly good fourth with £70,000 worth. Considering how clever the Americans are, it is singular that the United States supply only £25,000 worth of these joys of the children's heart. Yankee inventors do not care to waste their smartness on the trivial toy.—New York Telegram.

Americans and Money.
The American is constantly accused by Europeans of worshipping the "mighty dollar," and great was my curiosity to judge for myself of the justice of this charge. After calm observation of the ways of men in America, I came to the conclusion that the dollar was certainly not only the unit of the monetary system, but that it was also the unit of the mental system. However, I soon saw that, if the dollar was coveted and held in great respect, it was not so much for itself as for the luxury it was the key to, in other words, that avarice was a vice almost unknown in the land. There is a lavishness in the American's way of expending his money that rebukes his trick of taking off his hat to it whenever he sees it.—Max O'Reil.

A Promising Boy.
A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

David Wingrove, a marble worker of Baltimore, found a valuable diamond imbedded in a big block of Italian marble and has had the gem set, without cutting, in a heavy gold ring. Lapidaries say that, though such finds are unusual, this is by no means the first on record.

A single pair of herrings, if allowed to rot, would furnish food for twenty men, but not only supply the whole world with abundance of food, but would become inconveniently numerous.

A St. Louis dry goods house advertised for a "smart boy," and they got him. They put him behind the counter. The following conversation passed between him and his first customer:
Customer—Gleeking up a pair of gloves—What are these?
Smart Boy—Gloves.
Customer—Yes, yes; but what do you ask for them?
Smart Boy—We don't ask for them at all; customers do that.
Customer—You don't understand me. How do they come?
Smart Boy—Why, they come in pairs, of course.
Customer—No, no! How high do they come?
Smart Boy—Just above the wrist, I believe.
Customer—But what do you get for them?
Smart Boy—Me! I don't get nothing for them. Ross pockets all the money.
Customer (nodding sagely)—What is the price of those gloves per pair?
Smart Boy—Oh, that's your lay, is it? Why didn't you say so afore! One dollar.—St. Louis Magazine.

Mustard.
Only the best mustard is worth having, but the adulterations and tricks of preparation are so many that the best is hard to get. Much depends on the method of preparation. When good mustard is carefully ground and so carefully sifted that only 30 or 40 percent of the weight is saved as table mustard, a first class article is the result. Some poor stuff made from the rejected hulls is sold, with cayenne pepper added to give it a "bite." Mustard is largely adulterated by admixtures of turmeric and corn meal. Generally the quality of mustard can safely be judged by its price, and the cheapest is really the dearest. The yellow English mustard is best for table use. California mustard is so rich in oil that some of the oil is expressed before the mustard is sold to prevent it from becoming rancid—hence its unsatisfactory quality. Brown mustard is mostly used in medical practice.—Good Housekeeping.

HIGH GRADE GOODS

AT LOW GRADE PRICES

AT JACKSON'S THE JEWELER.

ONE CENT A WORD COLUMN.

HELP WANTED.

Female.
GIRL WANTED—A SERVANT GIRL wanted for general house work. Apply at 230 West Second street.
DINING ROOM AND KITCHEN GIRL wanted at 261 St. Croix avenue.

Male.
WANTED—SMART BOY TO SELL CIGARS and papers at Hotel St. Louis.
FOR RENT.
ROOM—NICELY FURNISHED ROOM FOR rent cheap at 224 Fourth avenue.

Houses.
FOR RENT—FURNISHED HOUSE OF eight rooms, centrally located. Will lease for six months, house—furniture including piano. Address P. M. office.
FOR RENT—A NICE NEW TO ROOM BRICK house, with all modern improvements, 120 East Third street. Apply at 112 East Third street.

HOUSE FOR RENT—3 ROOM HOUSE corner Fourth avenue east and First street. Lessee to buy the carpets, window draperies and stores now in the house. Possession given from first to middle of January G. G. Harley, room 32 Duluth Union National building.

FINANCIAL.
MONEY TO LOAN—REPRESENTING eastern capitalists, bankers and a mortgage company. Loans of any size negotiated promptly on low rates of interest.
N. J. Urban, Room 7 Metropolitan block.

LOANS—WE CAN LOAN $100 OR $100,000, without delay, at low rate of interest. McGregor & Bowes, Room 10 Metropolitan block.

MONEY TO LOAN—GOOD BUILDING loans—We can loan money on any property written in responsible companies. Clague & Frindle, 32 Duluth National Bank building.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

ARCHITECTS.
E. S. PALMER, L. P. HALL, J. L. MILLER & HALL, ARCHITECTS AND SUPERINTENDENTS, Rooms 6 Exchange building, Duluth, Minn.

M. MILLER & STEBBINS, ARCHITECTS and SUPERINTENDENTS. Office room No. Exchange building.

MUSIC.
GUITAR LESSONS BY A NEW AND ORIGINAL method. Easy terms. Harry Harrington, No. 6 Opera block.

MR. H. P. ROBINSON, BASS SOLAIST. May be seen or addressed at his studio, No. 8 Miles block, to arrange for concert engagements, conducting and teaching.

P. SCHILLING—VOICE CULTURE West.

HATTER AND FURRIER.
S. GILLMAN,

THE WAY OUT OF YOUR DILEMMA
IS TO USE THE HERALD WANT COLUMNS.
ONE CENT A WORD DOES IT.

VOL. 8: NO. 288

DULUTH EVENING HERALD.

DULUTH, MINN., FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 1890—FOUR O'CLOCK

PRICE TWO CENTS

CLOTHING AND HATS! AT BANKRUPT SALE!

The stock of F. I. Breeze
is being sold at prices that nobody disputes. If you want the goods the prices
are all right.

4 E. SUPERIOR ST.
Next to Corner of Lake ave.

NOTICE.

As the partnership of M. S. Burrows & Co. expires by limitation on February 25, 1890, all accounts must be settled by February 1, that the business may be satisfactorily wound up. Our collectors will call on you for accounts unpaid after this date will be placed with our attorney for collection. We mean what we say and take notice accordingly.

M. S. BURROWS & CO.

ARE YOU Thinking of Investing in a Fine FUR GARMENT?

ARE YOU Going to Get Your Old One Repaired?

You can find the choicest and most varied stock of

FURS

of all kinds that was ever shown in the city. The latest patterns made to fit and made on the premises. Repairing a special feature of the business. A call from you is respectfully solicited.

R. KROJANKER,

209 E. Sup. St.

FURRIER.

A. L. KINGMAN.

REAL ESTATE.

207 National Bank Bldg.

Residence Lots that lie beautifully only $125.00. Bargain in Acres. Bargains in Business Property. Bargains in Improved Property. If you want a bargain call. If you have anything to sell cheap don't fail to see me.

MINNESOTA'S LAW MAKERS.

A Local Option Bill Introduced in the House by a Fillmore County Representative.

Gov. Merriam Makes a Suggestion About Extravagant Appropriations Which Will be Adopted.

St. Paul, Jan. 25.—[Special.]—Routine business was the order of the day in the senate today. Senator Pope offered a bill for the appropriation of $1,013.07 by the state on the famous milk cases. It was referred to the appropriation committee. The state reform school committee introduced a bill providing for the consolidation of the various acts relating to the government of the state reform school and asking that the board of managers be increased from four to five, and three to constitute a quorum. The bill was passed.

In the house, Mr. Maland of Fillmore presented a bill to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in counties by local option. The bill provides that one fifth of the voters in any county may petition the county commissioners to submit the question of prohibition to the voters of the county at a general election. If a majority of the voters vote for prohibition the question is to be again submitted at the next general election. If the majority vote local option at this election the law provides that they shall have it.

The senate finance committee, the house committee on ways and means, and Governor Merriam met together in the executive chamber late yesterday afternoon to discuss the subject of appropriations. Auditor Braaten and Treasurer Bobleter were also present. Gov. Merriam gave it as his opinion that it would be well for the committee of both houses, to whom appropriation bills are referred, to hold them until all are received and then report on them all at one time instead of returning them singly to the house. The members agreed with the governor and the result was that an agreement was reached that the chairman of the respective committees should introduce in the house and senate resolutions requesting that all appropriation bills be presented to the legislature within the next twenty days. It is intimated that Gov. Merriam will be prompt to veto extravagant appropriation bills.

THE SCOTCH-IRISH.
A Congress of That Race at Columbia, Tenn., Early in May.

Columbia, Tenn., Jan. 25.—There will assemble at Columbia on May 8, next a congress of the Scotch-Irish race. Every state in the union, Canada and the United Kingdom, will be represented by prominent representatives of this race, who will participate in the exercises of the congress. The object of the congress is to revive memories and to compile a history of the race, showing its impress on American civilization. It will be devoid of religious or political significance. Distinguished scholars will read historical papers and deliver orations commemorating the deeds of the Scotch and Irish. The information thus gathered will be compiled into history. The opening address will be delivered by Col. McKim, Philadelphia. Dr. John Hall and other eminent divines and scholars have accepted invitations to speak. A feature of special interest in connection with the congress will be a reunion of ex-confederate and federal soldiers.

A Death Blow for Scaplers.
CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—It is more than probable that the scaplers will be dealt a death blow by the meeting of the western railroad managers which opened today at 1 o'clock in the office of Commissioner Abbott. This at least is the purport of the new agreement, which according to the statement of several managers prior to the meeting being called to order is certain to be adopted. The scaplers are provided for in the agreement. A feature of special interest in connection with the meeting is the placing of tickets in scaplers, while the new form of mileage books are to contain a full and minute description of the passenger who is also required to affix his signature in the presence of the agent from whom it is purchased. Nor will the scaplers be able to do much business with tickets obtained from people who all go through for these will be released by the roads, full value, in short the life blood is to be crushed out of the fraternity.

Mourning Bobby Burns.
CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—All over the civilized world where a half-dozen bonyos Scotch can be gotten together, the 130th anniversary of the birth of Robert Burns will today be celebrated in an appropriate manner. The observance in this city began last night with a reception of the Burns Memorial association in a hall, conspicuous on the platform was John Morgan, 106 years of age, who had often shaken hands with the poet, and who was wearing a Highland costume. Tonight the Highland association and the Flora MacDonald society will jointly celebrate in the same hall, and Senator Argue, a member of the Wisconsin legislature, will deliver an oration. It has been determined by the Highland association to organize a brigade of Highlanders, the members of which will wear the famous "black watch" uniform of the 42nd regiment.

Kloped with the Coachman.
New York, Jan. 25.—A daughter of Paul N. Vander Eech, superintendent of the Astoria silk mills, eloped on Saturday with her father's coachman, Wm. Silvers. After their marriage the couple returned to Astoria. Mr. Vander Eech met them and invited them to his residence. Mrs. Vander Eech, however, refused to admit them and they still remain. Mr. Vander Eech has given Silvers a good position in the silk mill.

A Battle of Books.
INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 25.—The Democratic caucus of the legislature last night nominated Jacob P. Dunn as state librarian. For the past 17 years this office has been filled by women and there were 10 or 12 ladies in the nomination. The Republicans have nominated Mrs. Virginia C. Meredith for the office.

Albani Visits Her Birthplace.
MONTREAL, Jan. 25.—Madame Albani, who arrived here yesterday, paid a visit today to her birthplace at Charlevoix, ten miles distant. Her first concert takes place tomorrow and so great is the fortune that the hall was sold out several days ago.

What is more attractive than a pretty face with a fresh, bright complexion? For it is Posani's Powder.

AFTER INSPECTORSHIPS.

A very spirited contest is going on for the appointments of chief grain inspector at St. Paul and chief deputy at Minneapolis, Duluth and St. Paul. For the position of chief inspector, J. A. James, the present incumbent, and A. C. Clausen, now chief deputy in Minneapolis, are the principal applicants. A delegation of grain men of that city went to St. Paul yesterday in Mr. Clausen's interest. For chief deputy of St. Paul the leading applicants are T. J. Hodgson, the present officer, and John Heising, now a deputy inspector at Minneapolis. For chief deputy in Minneapolis Geo. F. Moulton, at present superintendent of the new elevator at South Minneapolis, seems to be in the lead. For chief deputy at Duluth, John Shely, the present incumbent, and J. W. Gross, at present a deputy inspector in Minneapolis, are the chief contestants. There are numerous others seeking some of the positions, but those named seemed to be the most prominent. The appointments are made by the state grain and warehouse commission, but the governor is said to be occasionally consulted in such matters.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.

THE LAND GRANT SUE OF THE JIM HULLS' ROAD AGAINST THE DULUTH & WINNIPEG RAILROAD.
Judge Stearns' court this morning was devoted to the case of the Brainerd & Northwestern road vs the Duluth & Winnipeg, a suit in which the plaintiff seeks to deprive the defendant from securing title to certain valuable swamp lands granted by the state legislature. The case is one of unusual importance to Duluth and is of great interest. It is based on facts as follows: A number of years ago the state legislature granted to the Duluth & Winnipeg road a land grant of 100,000 acres, which included certain swamp lands, lands which revert to the state on survey by the general government, amounting to 10 sections per mile of road. This grant was made to lapse in 1888. Later a number of these lands were given the Duluth & Iron Range and Brainerd & Northwestern road, a creation of Jim Hill's, came to the front, and a request was made for the Duluth & Winnipeg grant should it lapse. The request was granted. The Duluth & Winnipeg has completed two ten mile sections of the road, and asks for the allotment of land. Hence the suit. Its outcome will undoubtedly be favorable to the Duluth & Winnipeg, for as held by the supreme court that the act of giving to a second road land grants acquired by the first is illegal, as the land is owned by the state, and it remains in the state with no further right to give. And it is question whether a grant is one made to the state, and it remains in the state, it can be forfeited. The case will be watched with great interest, as it is of such local importance, and the result will settle the nature of a test case to settle land points now open and disputed. The suit will be carried up to the supreme court by whichever company comes out behind here.

CALL FOR CAUCUSES.

A convention of the Republicans of the city of Duluth will be held at Ingalls hall, in said city, Thursday, January 31, next, for the purpose of organizing a committee for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for judge of the municipal court, city treasurer, city controller and one candidate for a chairman from each ward, to be carried by the delegates at a caucus to be held on Tuesday, February 5, 1890, and for the purpose of organizing a committee for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for aldermen to be nominated by the ward committees on the respective wards. The representation will be by precincts, on a basis of one delegate for each precinct. The candidates for the office of city controller will be the Hon. W. R. Merriam, the Republican candidate for governor, at the general election in November 1890, and the Hon. J. M. Campbell and W. A. Wilson.

First ward.....230-5
Second ward.....122-4
Third ward.....122-4
Fourth ward.....122-4
Fifth ward.....122-4
Sixth ward.....122-4
Total.....57

The primary election of delegates will be held on Wednesday, January 30, 1890, the polls to be open from 9 to 5 p. m. All electors who believe in the principles of the Republican party and who desire to support the candidate nominated by the convention hereby called, will be entitled to vote at the primary elections. The primary elections will be held at the following places:

FIRST WARD.
At Ada Delaney's, corner Lake and Avenue South. Judges—J. A. Wilson and J. M. Campbell.

SECOND WARD.
At McCall's, corner Superior street. Judges—Theo. Macey, G. R. Laybourn and J. T. Gilbert.

THIRD WARD.
First precinct—At No. 104 East Superior street. Judges—C. H. Foster, O. C. Reitan and F. E. Austin.
Second precinct—At No. 331 East Superior street. Judges—Frank Burke, Jr., C. C. Wieland and J. E. Cooley.
Third precinct—At No. 31 Washington avenue. Judges—M. H. Bywater, J. H. Norbury and L. A. Wilson.

FOURTH WARD.
First precinct—At No. 23 Second avenue west. Judges—E. R. Jefferson, Ole Olson and W. P. Stridling.
Second precinct—At 501 West Superior street. Judges—C. F. Johnson, John Williams and James Oak.

FIFTH WARD.
First precinct—At home house, corner Superior street and Garfield avenue. Judges—L. Larsen, Joseph Hehn and Chas. Carlson.
Second precinct—George McAdams, W. W. Butcher and Andrew Swordling.
Third precinct—At No. 328 Twentieth avenue west. Judges—J. A. Moore, Neil Owens and A. O. Ayers.

SIXTH WARD.
At No. 2231 West Michigan street. Judges—H. C. Helm, G. H. Alsop, and Gustaf Velander.
Dated at Duluth, Minnesota, January 17, 1890.
W. F. LAY,
E. G. SWANSTROM, ASA DALRY,
W. H. BURRART,
T. H. FRENKEL,
Republican City Committee.

Money to Loan.
Parties who contemplate building business blocks and desiring large loans can be readily accommodated by
S. M. CHADLER,
At Stewart & Britt's Bank.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

A Negro Lanes a Suit for Damages Brought for Misuse on a Boat.
BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 25.—In the United States district court, Judge Morris has dismissed without costs the libel suit of Robt. McGinn, a colored minister, against the owners and captain of the steamer Mason L. Weems, for damages for treatment on board to which McGinn was subjected because of his color. In July, 1887, he purchased a first class ticket to Millenbeck, Va. When the supper bell rang, he seated himself at the table and upon his refusal to move, the food and dishes were removed to another table, the passengers all taking seats at the table and leaving him alone. Afterward the passengers threatened him which was the cause of his leaving the boat before reaching his destination. The judge held that when a first class price is demanded and paid and persons are seated at the table with the same accommodations, but when public sentiment demands a separation of passengers it must be granted to some extent.

IN THE LATEST DITCH.

Old Man Hogan Brought to Bay Asks to be Shot.
JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Jan. 25.—Sheriff Hayes' posse went to Bull Creek early yesterday morning and succeeded at last in arresting old Harrison Hogan. They ran the steamer, Minnie Bay, up to his shanty and threw the electric light rays upon it. Hogan came out to give battle, but seeing the odds retired inside. The old man then hared his breast and asked the sheriff to shoot him. He had no friends, had been beaten out of his wealth, and did not want to live any longer. Finally he was surrendered. He is seventy-five years old.

The Grand Army in the South.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 25.—This afternoon a new department of the Grand Army of the Republic will be organized in this city where its headquarters will also be located. Delegates from all the posts in Georgia and Alabama are here this morning. They are expected to reach Savannah on the British Steamship Minora, to proceed to Burber by rail, and then strike off to the jungle with a few followers. He thinks he can find Stanley and get back to New York within two years. He refuses to let any of his men go with him. He is sending him, "Wild Horse Charlie," has been active service in the British army and has held a commission in the navy. He was with the British troops in Zululand, when young Prince Napoleon was killed. He is about forty years old and was a cowboy once.

GLADSTONE OBJECTS.

He Doesn't Care to Have His Name Used in the National League.
LONDON, Jan. 24.—Mr. Gladstone, who is now at Naples, in reply to a correspondent who had called his attention to the fact that a branch of the Irish National League had been named after him, writes, "I have no connection of any sort with the league, nor have I any knowledge whatsoever upon the subject. I suppose my name was chosen owing to my efforts to free the Irish from oppressive laws."

She Will Not Hang.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 24.—Hail the sentence of the law been allowed to have gone into effect Mrs. Amona Garrett's lease of life would be very short, and two o'clock tomorrow morning would see her hanging from a rope in the eastern corridor of the state penitentiary in this city. But the natural repugnance which exists toward the hanging of women has saved her neck, and for the rest of her life she is in human form, who beat out the brains of her two children, saturated their bodies with coal oil and then set fire to the house, will expire her crime as a life convict within the walls of her present abode. Only one woman has ever been hung in this state—Mrs. Esther Foster—who was swung from the gallows in February, 1884. Her crime was the murder of a fellow convict in the city prison.

Minister Phelps Farewell.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The stars and stripes flew side by side with the Union Jack over the Mansion house today and inside a small body of workmen is busily engaged in decorating the main hall, preparing for the banquet given in honor of the new minister of the United States, and a distinguished company, representing both branches of politics, literature, science, etc., has been invited to meet him. The compliment tendered to the American minister is an unusual one and is taken as a strong evidence of his popularity in the metropolis. Mr. Phelps, who is in Italy has a letter regretting his inability to be present and eulogizing Mr. Phelps.

Railroad Presidents in Force.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Nearly all of the twenty four railroad presidents who have been summoned by Charles Francis Adams to attend the "gentlemen's meeting" this morning, and the probabilities are that when it is called to order at noon every line affected will be represented. The indications this morning are that a new iron clad organization will be effected and that the first railroad president, no matter how high or powerful he may be, will attempt to break out of the "Inter State Commerce Association" under which title the new organization will be known, will find himself in an unpleasant predicament.

An Interested Witness.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 24.—Edward James, of the Hope Iron and Tin Plate company, at Tipton, Eng., is now in Pittsburgh. He says over $1,000,000 has been contributed by English tin plate manufacturers and merchants to defeat the clause in the senate tariff bill imposing duty on tin plate. Mr. James says that if the proposed duty is retained in the bill, it will kill the tin plate industry in Great Britain and open it up in this country. He has come to Pittsburgh to open a tin plate manufacturing.

Love Conquers.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Jan. 24.—Jas. Judson is a farmer who reared two pretty daughters. As they grew old enough they fell in love, much to the displeasure of the father. Being unable to gain his cause, the youngest ran away with her lover, but was followed by the father and brought back, when he found that the older one had eloped. He followed her also, and the result was an agreement on his part to give them "a good double wedding," which he did, and backed it up with a handsome bank check to each.

The warm sun today has spoiled what little sleighing there has been for the past few days, and longmen are feeling that it will melt the snow in the woods. It has been too warm for a day or two for the sleighs, so if the snow should go they would be in despair.

Loggers are crowding their hauling as rapidly as possible and are rushing teams into the woods so rapidly that the demand has exceeded the supply.

From Yesterday's Last Edition.

CRUISE OF THE BOSTON.

A Drunken Governor and The Story of Gov. Burges.
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The story of the Boston seems to have been the result of a drunken frolic of the governor of the province in which Livingston is situated. The consul was released after having been locked up for three hours. When the Boston arrived and her guns frowned threateningly at the town, the governor made a most incoherent and simple apology. This matter having been satisfactorily settled, the Boston was ordered to Conn. Island, off the coast of Nicaragua. The island is the key of the proposed Nicaragua canal, from a military point of view. Information had been received at the state department that the United States of Colombia had set up a claim to the island and had entered into a secret compact with France to take possession of it and cede the French government a coaling station there. This would enable France to command the eastern entrance to the Nicaraguan canal. When the Boston reached Conn. Island it was found that the Nicaraguan government had also heard of the intended seizure of the island and had sent a gunboat there with instructions to the commanding officer to forcibly resist any attempt to occupy the place by a foreign power. This resulted in the United States government from any further action in the matter.

WILD HORSE CHARLIE.

He Starts For Central Africa to Find Stanley.
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Victor Beaumont, better known as "Wild Horse Charlie," is selling out his business in Newburg preparatory to going to Africa in search of Stanley. He expects to reach Sankin on the British Steamship Minora, to proceed to Burber by rail, and then strike off to the jungle with a few followers. He thinks he can find Stanley and get back to New York within two years. He refuses to let any of his men go with him. He is sending him, "Wild Horse Charlie," has been active service in the British army and has held a commission in the navy. He was with the British troops in Zululand, when young Prince Napoleon was killed. He is about forty years old and was a cowboy once.

GLADSTONE OBJECTS.

He Doesn't Care to Have His Name Used in the National League.
LONDON, Jan. 24.—Mr. Gladstone, who is now at Naples, in reply to a correspondent who had called his attention to the fact that a branch of the Irish National League had been named after him, writes, "I have no connection of any sort with the league, nor have I any knowledge whatsoever upon the subject. I suppose my name was chosen owing to my efforts to free the Irish from oppressive laws."

She Will Not Hang.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 24.—Hail the sentence of the law been allowed to have gone into effect Mrs. Amona Garrett's lease of life would be very short, and two o'clock tomorrow morning would see her hanging from a rope in the eastern corridor of the state penitentiary in this city. But the natural repugnance which exists toward the hanging of women has saved her neck, and for the rest of her life she is in human form, who beat out the brains of her two children, saturated their bodies with coal oil and then set fire to the house, will expire her crime as a life convict within the walls of her present abode. Only one woman has ever been hung in this state—Mrs. Esther Foster—who was swung from the gallows in February, 1884. Her crime was the murder of a fellow convict in the city prison.

Minister Phelps Farewell.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The stars and stripes flew side by side with the Union Jack over the Mansion house today and inside a small body of workmen is busily engaged in decorating the main hall, preparing for the banquet given in honor of the new minister of the United States, and a distinguished company, representing both branches of politics, literature, science, etc., has been invited to meet him. The compliment tendered to the American minister is an unusual one and is taken as a strong evidence of his popularity in the metropolis. Mr. Phelps, who is in Italy has a letter regretting his inability to be present and eulogizing Mr. Phelps.

Railroad Presidents in Force.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Nearly all of the twenty four railroad presidents who have been summoned by Charles Francis Adams to attend the "gentlemen's meeting" this morning, and the probabilities are that when it is called to order at noon every line affected will be represented. The indications this morning are that a new iron clad organization will be effected and that the first railroad president, no matter how high or powerful he may be, will attempt to break out of the "Inter State Commerce Association" under which title the new organization will be known, will find himself in an unpleasant predicament.

An Interested Witness.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 24.—Edward James, of the Hope Iron and Tin Plate company, at Tipton, Eng., is now in Pittsburgh. He says over $1,000,000 has been contributed by English tin plate manufacturers and merchants to defeat the clause in the senate tariff bill imposing duty on tin plate. Mr. James says that if the proposed duty is retained in the bill, it will kill the tin plate industry in Great Britain and open it up in this country. He has come to Pittsburgh to open a tin plate manufacturing.

Love Conquers.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, Wis., Jan. 24.—Jas. Judson is a farmer who reared two pretty daughters. As they grew old enough they fell in love, much to the displeasure of the father. Being unable to gain his cause, the youngest ran away with her lover, but was followed by the father and brought back, when he found that the older one had eloped. He followed her also, and the result was an agreement on his part to give them "a good double wedding," which he did, and backed it up with a handsome bank check to each.

The warm sun today has spoiled what little sleighing there has been for the past few days, and longmen are feeling that it will melt the snow in the woods. It has been too warm for a day or two for the sleighs, so if the snow should go they would be in despair.

Loggers are crowding their hauling as rapidly as possible and are rushing teams into the woods so rapidly that the demand has exceeded the supply.

THE DEATH OF BURNES.

Congressman Burnes of Missouri Dies at Washington.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The entire delegation from Missouri together with Speaker Hale, Mr. Randall and other members of the Missouri delegation, met in the room of the house committee on appropriations at 11 o'clock this morning to take suitable action upon the death of Jas. N. Burnes. There were few remarks beyond a brief statement of the sad necessity which has called the members together, and the delegation resolved itself to the adoption of appropriate resolutions.

CAPTURED GOLD.

A Postal Thief in San Francisco Captures $1,000 in Gold From the Office.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—On Friday Nov. 30, the cashier of the firm of F. W. Hornum & Co. fixed up a package containing $1,000 in $20 gold pieces, for shipment to one of the firm's correspondents. The parcel was given to a 12-year old son of the drayman, who does the firm's teaming, with instructions to take it to the postoffice and get it registered, but he forgot that part of his orders. The youngster went to the stamp window, and after paying for the requisite number of stamps, asked where he should deposit it. The clerk at the stamp window, not knowing what the parcel contained, told the boy to throw it into the aperture for the reception of papers and packages, and the boy did so. The money never reached its destination, and Hornum & Co. informed the postoffice authorities. One man in the postoffice is suspected of stealing the package, but as yet no one has been discharged or arrested.

ON CHANGE.

A WELCOME CHANGE FROM THE DROPT YESTERDAY—A DULL MARKET.
After the excitement caused by the large decline and wide fluctuations in our yesterday's market, we are today having a more steady feeling. Our market has been a waiting one, with a firm undertone and advancing tendencies. The opening was late at 9:45 below yesterday's close, buyers rather predominated and but little still could be bought. There was no sure to sell and the session was dull. Prices were gradually bid up until and advance of 1/16 was secured on May. The close was dull, but firm, with buyers of May at outside prices.

Cash wheat firm, with buyers at yesterday's close and sellers demanding advance. No. 1 hard 110 bid. Buyers and sellers apart on the other grades. No. 1 northern nominal at 97 to 98. February no transactions, nominally at 110 with buyers. May opened at 115 1/2. Buyers bid it up to 116 1/2, where it was firmly pegged to the close. The close was firm and nominally at 117. Dune no trading, closed with 116 1/2 bid.

CUB NOTES.

"The trouble with the sugar jugglers," said a broker yesterday, "is that they do not go deep enough into their subject. The decrease in the visible supply of sugar Monday was less than on the corresponding day in 1888. But this doesn't close the subject. America was then exporting twice the amount that is going out now and England now has available supplies without drawing on a foreign source. America to July, and there is India, South America and all the other countries coming in soon. Why, with a good spring, will be harvesting in May in the southern states."

"Hail the traders on the floor have cast an anchor to windward by getting long a little wheat. They will reap the reward for their courage in the future," remarked one of the known brokers Tuesday. Wednesday he was as well as the rest realizing that with a cent break the anchor had dragged.

Receipts of wheat this forenoon were 7,260 bushels, shipments nothing, and the balance of receipts 22,410 bushels and shipments of 2029 bushels same day last week. On track are 177 Northern Pacific cars.

Some choice lots in Endion.

HARRIS BROS.
We have a customer for a double corner in Second division, Superior street. If you have a good corner, come and see us.
HARRIS BROS.

SALE OF SCHOOL HOUSE.

Bids will be received by the undersigned until Friday, February 1, 1890, for the purchase of the old Franklin school building, corner Seventh street and Fifth avenue east. Possession will be given February 1st, and building must be removed immediately thereafter. The black boards and all school furniture are reserved. A certified cheque for $100 must accompany each bid. The right to reject any or all bids reserved.
AS FRED L. RICHARDS,
Secretary.

W. F. Parsons

BUSINESS COLLEGE

SHORTHAND INSTITUTE.

Open day and evening.

In Parsons block on Superior street.

West Duluth

Land Co.'s Lots.

Acres East.

Acres West.

Acres in the middle of Duluth

Will Properly Bargain! Bargains! Look at my List.

E. W. MARKEL,

Room 8 Opera Block

CACING A BURGLAR.

THE CASE WAS ALL RIGHT, BUT THE BURGLAR WASN'T. THE BURGLAR WASN'T. THE BURGLAR WASN'T.

In the small hours of the morning, Chief Dorn was aroused from town from the Turner hall where he had been attending to his official duties and occupying his spare moments by dancing in an official capacity with the fair maid who made last night's entertainment glorious. As before stated he was coming away from these scenes of duty and pleasure. What his feelings were it is not the province of the chronicler of this event to state. The cold facts are that when he arrived at a point opposite Jay W. Anderson's liquid refreshment establishment, his eyes turned in that direction. He may have forgot for the moment that he was the head of Duluth's great police force, and wondered if he could not work a side door and absorb a night cap. He may have looked and discovered that the house was dark as the outlook from a Duluth Democrat's stables. If the place was closed, the curtains should be drawn and the burglar could see inside, and thus discover the operations of a burglar. Quick as lightning the official instinct took possession of the chief. He hunted up a policeman and imparted to him the suspicion that a crackman was at work inside. An investigation was made, and through a crack a subdued light was seen to glimmer directly in front of the chief. He turned to the rear of the building, and a squad of officers were soon on the spot and placed in conspicuous positions with uplifted clubs and bated breath. The burglar was trapped. Quickly Mr. Anderson was roused from his slumber, and in the confusion and in the form of the state of affairs. He hastened to his place of business, and under the direction of the chief cautiously unlocked the door. Upon entering a better view of the burglar was obtained. The burglar was not visible. The light did not shine from a dark lantern; it was a reflection on the floor used to heat water with which to compound hot scotch and Thomas and Jeremiah's.

Lots in Portland and Endless. C. E. Lovett & Co.

HELEN BARRY.

Miss Helen Barry, who appeared last evening as contessa d'Autreval in "A Woman's Strategy," has an adaptation for the most clever actress ever entertaining an audience in this city. She does not like her English costume, and in her American, try to depend on stage settings, dress and scenery to attract audience, but has an excellent adaptation of her own qualities that tend to establish an actress' reputation. "A Woman's Strategy" is a dramatic work from a popular French play, and in it Miss Barry has displayed her remarkable abilities. Hypercritical eastern newspaper men have been too prompt to be expressive, but those who wrote thus would try to improve their criticism by picturing it. It is true that the applause given Miss Barry last night was much caused by admiration of her varied expression of countenance, now gay, now sad; smiling and then calm, by every movement of face, or for her voice, which held in its varying tone every emotion. The play opens with the drawing room of a chateau, and the scene does not change throughout the piece. The plot is as follows: A young man, the Marquis de Bonaparte, plots, takes revenge with the help of his servant. He is followed by the officers of the law, by whom his whereabouts and possible whereabouts are known. Her strategy in securing the young man's escape from the main plot, while her unrequited love for him, loving her, since serves to time the play with sadness. The part of the niece, played by Miss H. H. Ford, was well rendered. Frank Mordant, as the outwitted officer, J. M. Colville, as the faithful and brave McIntosh, as the countess' lover, were most excellent. There was a fair audience last night, but the company, however, will undoubtedly receive full houses the remainder of their engagement.

Bargains in blocks in Hazlewood.

One of the best serial stories ever published by "Miss Brewster" by the author of Robert Elmore. A portion of this story is now appearing daily in the columns of the Herald and affords a rare literary treat to its readers.

Solid Vestibled Trains.

run over the Michigan Central, "the Niagara Falls Route" between Chicago and Buffalo. These trains are not only equipped with the finest Wagner palace sleeping-cars, but are made thoroughly complete by the addition of dining smoking, first-class and baggage cars, and although constituting the famous "limited" of the Michigan Central, carry all classes of passengers without extra charge. These trains carry through vestibled sleeping cars between Chicago and New York, via New York Central & Hudson River railroad, and between Chicago and Boston, via N. Y. Central and Boston & Albany railroads. The vestibuled "limited" also carries through sleepers to Chicago to Toronto (via Canadian Pacific), where connection is made with parlor car Montreal. Accommodations are given at the Michigan Central ticket office, No. 67 Clark street, corner Randolph, and depot foot of Lake street, Chicago.

Special Bargains in Lots in Helm addition.

Extensions to St. Paul and Minneapolis. For the convenience of those who desire to visit St. Paul or Minneapolis at low rates, the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway announce a series of mid-winter excursions from all stations on its line in Minnesota and Dakota. Excursions to St. Paul and return to one fare for the round trip, tickets to be valid January 22nd, 24th, 26th, 28th and 31st, good to return up to and including February 3rd 1890.

Parties desiring to take advantage of these very low excursion rates should apply to their nearest St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway ticket agent for through tickets and general information regarding advantages offered passengers by this great Northwest railway system of Minnesota and Dakota.

Lots and blocks in Third Division, bargains.

C. E. Lovett & Co.

The Logging Outlook.

This winter so far has been decidedly bad for logging interests on account of the almost total absence of snow. In other winters at this time the cut in this district was at least twice as large as it is now, and in a far better condition as regards the location for decent to the mills in the spring. For want of snow little trading has been done so far and it is feared that will experience much trouble in getting to the main stream, should the winter remain as it has in, without snow, and it is held fair to do so. The winter is half gone, and the coldest part of it, theoretically, is upon us, yet the lumbermen are not high in the market for a mid spring, the thermometer having not even sunk much below zero. Should the winter continue as it is, it is considered very bad for the present.

No property left in West End here so well as is convenient, or can be bought on any terms, as lots in West End here.

Excelsior agents.

West Duluth property.

Chas. T. Abbott.

EXPERIENCE.

The world was made when a man was born. He must taste for himself the forbidden apples. He must take warning from old fashioned things. He must learn as a boy, he must drink as a youth, he must kiss, he must love, he must swear to the truth. Of the rest of his soul; he must laugh to scorn the hints of deceit in a woman's eyes. That are clear as the walls of Paradise. And as he goes on till the world grows old, Till his mouth has grown cautious, his heart has grown cold, Till his smile leaves his mouth and the ring leaves his hand, And his heart the bright headache you ask him to tell. He goes formal with men and with women polite, And distrustful of both when they're out of his sight. Then he sits for his palate and drinks for his heart. And lives for his pleasure, and 'tis time he were dead.

—John Boyle O'Reilly.

THE FIRST OF MAY.

"And as 'Tou is here he will help you move, my dear." Mr. Bowman said this on the eve of the first of May, 18—, standing with his portmanteau in his hand at the door of his residence, and a policeman on the corner ended the morning. "I should feel very badly about leaving you just now, Emma, pressing as my business is, were 'Tou not here." "Oh, I'll take care of 'Em," said I, "don't feel anxious." Then Bowman kissed his wife, and we all shook hands, and Bowman rushed into the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course. Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment. I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes, of course.

Now, Bowman is my brother-in-law, and Emma my affectionate sister, but I cannot truthfully say that I felt perfectly delighted with my position at that moment.

I had taken advantage of a rare holiday to pay a visit to my relatives in New York, and instead of finding them in their usual tidy state and ready to receive a country relative, I came upon them just as the annual winter drive was doing its worst with them, to find carpets up, bedsteads down, the atmosphere redolent of soap suds, the servants in a state of rebellion, no regular meals to be expected, and Emma's temper decidedly upset, and to crown the climax, Bowman, I shall always believe it was a mere pretext with business in Boston calling him away, abandoning his domestic throne in my favor.

However, there I was, and I must make the best of it. I began by looking up the house that night, and being very careful, Emma with tears in her eyes

THE DAY IN THE CITY.

Clan Stewart and its friends will "all together" celebrate Burns' birthday this evening.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the American Mechanical Improvement company was held yesterday afternoon to transact business.

Fourteen realty transfers were filed yesterday, consideration $23,550. Much of the business of the office is now in satisfaction of mortgages.

Minimum temperature this morning was 15 degrees above, and the day has been bright and warm. During most of the day the wind has been from the southwest.

At the New London residence of Frank Backman, the Ladies Home Mission society of the Presbyterian church will entertain this evening. A special train will bring them back to town.

At the annual meeting of the Iron Bay Foundry company directors were elected as follows: D. H. Merritt, A. Kidder, C. Y. Osburn, J. M. Longyear, Peter White, F. W. Merritt and E. A. Merritt.

Receipts of wheat this morning were 16,969 bushels, shipment nothing, against receipts of 2,516 and shipments of 2,556 same day last year. Cars of wheat on truck this morning were 36, of which 27 are on the Northern Pacific road.

The American District Telegraph company have begun operations and now have their plant in full operation. The company will soon increase its service very materially. Prices of messenger service are very low and the company will undoubtedly soon have good patronage.

The articles of incorporation of the Scandinavian Stock company, of Tower, have been filed with the register of deeds. John Peterson is president and Gust Leal secretary. The capital stock of $5,000 is divided into five hundred shares of $10 each.

Notices were received at the signal office this morning to hoist the cold wave flag and that a drop of at least 20 degrees would result by tomorrow morning. The news is welcome to ice men, coal dealers, lumbermen and a large share of the general public.

A very pleasant and entertaining masquerade skate was given last night at the Zenith rink. There were nearly one hundred young people present, most of all of whom were in mask and costume. The ice was good and most of the skaters graceful. It was a perfect night.

Yesterday afternoon the Duluth packing company moved into its new building on Sixth avenue west, below Railroad street. It is a solid and commodious two-story structure, 40x112 feet in size, and has just been built at a cost of about $12,000. It has many new and approved cooling appliances and is a model storage house.

Capt. McHugh has the ways almost completed on which he will lay the keel of his new vessel. She will be built with the lower hull almost identical in cross section with that of the Spokane, one of Capt. Wilson's most successful craft. But the new vessel will carry a good deal more than the Spokane's 2,000 tons capacity.

W. F. Green, charged with selling liquor without license at West Duluth, was before Court Commissioner Carey last night. As no one could prove that his "hair tonic" was anything more than a dry tonic, even though it was drinkable, Mr. Green was released after a caution to be more careful of the contents of his tonic bottles.

Billy Wilson's deposit of $200 is still uncovered by Shelly, the Michigan champion (?) and no utterance can be had from him regarding such a meeting, and yet he has challenged Mike Conley. Wilson clearly has precedence. Shelly will be fought two to one any time he desires. What has he to say? The sporting element would like to hear from him.

Last Sunday night Joe D. Conan, the leading druggist, of Superior left his boarding house and went down town to his place of business and has not been seen since. When he left he said he would be back in the course of an hour, did not return, however, and a search was made, but nothing definite could be found of him. On searching his place of business his clothes and shoes were found, as they had removed them to go to bed. The bed was turned over and shaken up as if by a struggle in the room. His friends are fearful of his safety and believe foul play. The police are looking for evidence in the matter.

OTHER PEOPLE'S IDEAS.

It's just what we're doing.

Duluth is doing well in the way of inducing manufacturing enterprises but we want more of them. To induce good solvent firms to come here inducements must be offered. Is not this city suffering from the greed of land owners? Are not men frequently driven elsewhere who otherwise would be glad to locate plants right here? To obviate this growing menace to the development of Duluth would not it be well for the city to issue bonds and purchase large tracts of land suitable for manufacturing purposes, control the same, and offer inducements to manufacturers everywhere to locate here? This must prove a great benefit to the city, besides being a source of revenue. But the question may be raised, will not this lead to corruption? To obviate this, let the whole business be placed in the hands of a responsible committee who have the interests of the city at heart, and who can give ample bonds for "good behavior." There are scores of untapped industries that could find profitable foothold here. Tanneries should be established in large numbers as accessible, hemlock bark can be furnished for about $85 a cord, while Canadian bark is largely used in New England, costing duties can nearly double the amount. Boot and shoe factories will surely follow tanneries, and they must bring experienced workmen from the east with their families to help build up the metropolis and establish great furniture factories. The South Shore and other lines, and the lake boats, can lay down the material chapter than it can be furnished to eastern manufacturers. The northwest as it develops in population and wealth will require goods of finer workmanship and supply a larger force of men. Duluth should be the manufacturing and distributing point for all products here from wood.

Freight cars alone 1,000,000 are now in use in the United States, 100,000 are built annually to keep up the supply, and the demand must grow in a greater ratio each year, and Duluth's Minnesota Car company will have a profitable business from the start. Establish starch factories; potatoes can be raised in Minnesota soil in abundance so cheaply that the eastern markets should be invaded and made to pay tribute to a great industry. While we are reaching out for large concerns to locate plants here, smaller ones should not be ignored, for they all help to swell the grand total and contribute their share towards the general prosperity of the city. There are hundreds of young men of enterprise and limited means in cities like Boston, Worcester and Springfield who are anxious to invest and to better their condition, but cannot readily do so in conservative New England, who if properly approached, and readily directed would gladly come West and cast their lot with us. No better timber can be found anywhere, as small tracts in the past have been transplanted here and have grown to sturdy oaks. Duluth can testify by her present greatness. By all means send out your live men who fully realize the vastness of the Northwest and its possibilities to tackle the manufacturers of the east and convince them that their interests lie in the development of the great empire and in building up its metropolis.

If there is anything you want and don't know how to get it, try the HERALD's want column.

Try The MAGNOLIA CIGAR.

—AT—
OYCE & TOTMAN'S.

The finest Line of Optical goods in the city at BOYCE & TOTMAN'S.

Clubs for Women.

A lady suggests that the seductiveness and freedom of club life may be a reason why bachelors cling with such tenacity to their freedom. "Indeed," she says, "many are heard to declare that they find it impossible to conceive why a man should want a home when he can live at his club in much more elegance and luxury for not more than half the expense."

"Why should not this be a case of two evils and two evils? Would not the life of an unmarried woman, that poor specimen of 'fortunity' generally pitted as an old maid, be a thousand times more agreeable if she were a member of a club, whose club house was situated in the most fashionable locality, where she could spend her hours in its luxurious parlors, surrounded with every comfort, well trained servants ready and anxious to do her bidding, friends dropping in unceremoniously, the best of cooking at her order, an elegant table d'hôte served daily for what it would cost for a boarder at a restaurant, a bedroom or two, well furnished, well heated, well cared for in every respect? Would it not be as likely independent a way for single women and widows to live as for bachelors and widowers, without the coldness attributed to the unprotected woman, in a hotel, or the opprobrium attached to a boarder in a boarding house, or the loneliness of living alone in one's house, or doubly alone and half hearted friends?"—New York Telegram.

School Examinations.

It cannot be too often insisted on that examination is a good educational servant, but a bad master. It is a useful instrument in the hand of a teacher to test his own work, and to know how far his pupils have followed and profited by his teaching. But it necessarily exerts a fatal influence whenever it is made of such importance that teachers simply conform to an external standard, lose faith in themselves, sink into the position of their own text books and give but little of their own personality to their work. It is true that it is necessary to test the work of teachers, but it is necessary to test the work of teachers, but it is not necessary, for the purpose of doing so, to take the wholesale out of teaching. Examinations are to be defended on the ground that they test the efficiency of teachers, then we reply that other and better ways of doing this are to be found and must be found. We admit quite frankly that they can only be found and pursued at the price of some trouble and experiment on the part both of parents and those responsible for the conduct of teaching; but if trouble and thought and experiment are to be spared in this great matter, we had better at once resign the hope of attaining any moral and intellectual results of real value from what we are doing. —Popular Science Monthly.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and can be sold in competition of the adulterated of low test, short weight stuff or poisonous powders. Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall Street, New York.

GLASS BLOCK LAUNDRY.
HIGH GLOSS, DOMESTIC FINISH
Special Rates on Lace Curtains and Family Washing. W. E. KERNS, Prop.
102 West Superior street.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR SLIPS AND FALLS!

Moral: Insure in the Travelers.
WENDELL P. MOSHER, Agent.
Under Duluth Nat. Bank.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND OPERA HOUSE
J. T. CONDON, Lessee and Mgr.

SPECIAL! THREE NIGHTS ONLY!
Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 24, 25 and 26

Distinguished English Actress,
HELEN BARRY!

Supported by FRANK MORDAUNT.
And a powerful Dramatic company, under the management of J. M. HILL.

Miss Barry will appear as the COQUETTE D'AUTREVAL in her new comedy, "A WOMAN'S STRATAGEM."

A sparkling comedy in three acts, adapted from the French of Eugene Scribe's "Balthazar des Larmes." Played by Miss Barry upwards of 500 times throughout Europe.

Sets on sale Thursday morning, Jan. 24, at Condon's Hat Store.

People's Theater.

HARRY BARNETT, Prop. and Mgr.
Geo. E. KENT, Assistant Manager.
ARTHUR NEWMAN, Stage Manager.
PROF. H. BECKE, Leader of Orchestra.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 25,

GRAND 20-ROUND GLOVE CONTEST.

For the Colored Heavy Championship of America and a $500 purse and entire gate receipts between Billy White, the Colored Champion, and Frank Taylor, (Black Frank).

This contest is on its merits. A rare treat to lovers of athletic sports. General admission 75c. Remember the date and go.

There is anything you want and don't know how to get it, try the HERALD's want column.

Try The MAGNOLIA CIGAR.

—AT—
OYCE & TOTMAN'S.

The finest Line of Optical goods in the city at BOYCE & TOTMAN'S.

HIGH GRADE GOODS

AT LOW GRADE PRICES

AT JACKSON'S

THE JEWELER.

ONE CENT A WORD COLUMN.

FOR SALE—BEST NEWS, CIGAR AND CONFECTIONERY STORE in Duluth, a bargain. Address L, Duluth.

FOR SALE—SHELVINGS AND STOVE. Enquire at Eagle Clothing Co., 18 West Superior Street.

HELP WANTED.
Female.
DINING ROOM AND KITCHEN GIRL wanted at 201 St. Croix avenue.

WANTED—SMART BOY TO SELL CIGARS and papers at Hotel St. Louis.

FOR RENT.
Rooms.
ROOM—NICELY FURNISHED ROOM FOR rent cheap at 224 Fourth avenue.

HOUSES.
FOR RENT—FURNISHED HOUSE OF eight rooms, centrally located. Will lease for six months, house and furniture including piano. Address P, this office.

FOR RENT—A NICE NEW 10 ROOM BRICK house, with all modern improvements, 133 East Third street. Apply at 112 East Third street.

HOUSE FOR RENT—ROOM HOUSE COR- ner Fourth avenue east and First street. Lease or buy now in the house. Possession given from first of month of January. G. G. Hartley, room 22 Duluth Union National building.

FINANCIAL.
MONEY TO LOAN—REPRESENTING eastern capitalists, bankers and a mortgage company. Loans of any size negotiated promptly on low rates of interest.
N. J. Upham, Room 7 Metropolitan block.

LOANS—WE CAN LOAN $100 OR $10,000. Without delay, at low rate of interest. McGregor & Bovey, Room 10 Metropolitan block.

MONEY TO LOAN—GOOD BUILDING loans a specialty. Insurance carefully written in duplicate. Office room 6 Exchange building, 325 Duluth National Bank building.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

ARCHITECTS.
E. S. PALMER. L. P. HALL.
J. ALLMER & HALL, ARCHITECTS
Superintendents, Room 4 Exchange building, Duluth, Minn.

MCILLLEN & STEBBINS, ARCHITECTS and superintendents. Office room No. Exchange building.

MUSIC.
UTAR LESSONS BY A NEW AND ORIG- inal method. Easy terms. Harry Hartington, No. 6 Opera block.

M. H. P. ROBINSON, BASS SOLIST. May be seen or addressed at his studio, No. 8 Miles block, to arrange for concert engagements, conducting and teaching.

P. SCHILLING—VOICE CULTURE West. and piano study; 113 Third avenue.

HATTER AND FURRIER.
S. GELHAAR, N. Y. PRACTICAL FURRIER All kinds of furs cleaned, altered and repaired. Real ermines dyed and relined a specialty. 501 West Superior street opposite Mercantile hotel Duluth Minn.

OPTICIAN AND CONSULTING OC- ULIST.
PRESERVE YOUR EYE SIGHT—IF YOUR eyes blur, if you are troubled with old sight, near sight, far sight or astigmatism, try our spectacle and eye glasses. Results guaranteed. Optician's prescriptions correctly filled. Sell, optician, Room 8, Hunter block.

TEACHER.
MISS MINNIE B. MAINY, TEACHER OF Voice Culture. 21 East Third street.

BOYCE & TOTMAN.
Are Headquarters for

TOILET ARTICLES.

HARRIS BROS.,

Three pieces of Acres.
Three double corners in Residence Property.
One West Superior Street lot.

THESE ARE REAL BARGAINS.
208 Duluth National Bank.

MYERS & WHIPPLE.
Careful and Judicious Investments Always Sure to Pay. We have some Bargains on Hand. Money to Loan in any amount. If not on hands can negotiate any amount on good property. Insurance carefully written in the best of companies. Call or write us. Duluth National Bank Building.

C. H. GRAVES & CO.,

INSURANCE

Real Estate & Loans

Acres at the West End.

Acres on the Hill.

Acres in the East End.

Lots in Portland.

150 Lots in Endion.

300 Lots in London.

ESTABLISHED 1869.

WM. C. SHERWOOD & CO.

We have Genuine Bargains in Lots and Blocks near the Car Works at West Duluth. All we ask is for parties to look at our prices, and if prices are not lower than any other property in same vicinity, do not buy of us. Call in. Write WM. C. SHERWOOD & CO., ROOM 8, METROPOLITAN BL'K.

ECKERT, WILLIAMS & CO.,
WHOLESALE COMMISSION
AND DEALERS IN

Corn, Oats, Flour, Mill Feed, Hay, Etc.
Office and Warehouse on Lake Ave., opp. Sutphin's Cold Storage

SEWERS CONNECTED.

P. V. DWYER & BROS.,

PLUMBERS

No. 16 Second Avenue West, Duluth.

ACRES! ACRES!

Now is the time to buy. No firm at Duluth has a better or larger list than we have. Kimberley & Stryker's Addition—A few Half Blocks left from first hands.

Clinton Place—One half block at a bargain; easy terms. Lots in both these handsome additions cheap. Money to Loan.

Kimberley, Stryker & Manley,
5 & 6 DULUTH NATIONAL BANK BUILDING.

C. B. WOODRUFF,
Wholesale and Retail

LUMBER,
Office, yard and Planing Mill 739 Garfield Ave. (3rd Street) Rice's Point

Complete stock of Dry Lumber, all grades.
Joist, Dimension, Boards, Flooring, Ceiling, Siding and Oak Flooring.
Long Joist 2x10, 2x12 and 2x14, 12 to 26 feet long.
Crowning by machinery a specialty.

Will deliver lumber to any part of the city.
Telephone No. 132. Mail bill of Lumber wanted or call for prices

Murnane & Spencer,
SPORTING HEADQUARTERS.
22 WEST SUPERIOR STREET.

CHOICE WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS.
All sporting news received here. All sporting papers on file.

MORISON & MACFARLANE.

32 Exchange Building,

Have Lots and Blocks in the Grassy Point additions, in the immediate vicinity of the West End improvements, for Sale at Great Bargains; also acreage suitable for platting on the St. Louis Bay, cheap. Will be pleased to show intending purchasers over the ground and furnish all information regarding said properties. Choice Lots and Blocks in Hunter's and Macfarlane's Grassy Point additions are being rapidly taken up, and prices sure to advance. Come and make your purchases early before they are all gone. Are selling lots on building contract and no cash payment required for one year.

HARWOOD'S

City Transportation, Freight & Express Drays

Office 17 First Ave. West.

Lahn's

SPECIAL PRICES DURING THIS MONTH TO BUYERS OF

DRY GOODS,

Carpets, Upholstery Goods,

And Wall Paper.

SEVERAL HUNDRED CLOAKS ARE YET TO BE DISPOSED

OF. THE REDUCTIONS RANGE FROM

25 TO 75 PER CENT

From regular prices, affording an unusual opportunity to secure a re-

ble article at less than manufacturer's cost. An inspection and comparison invited.

Lahn's

AN INSPECTOR'S LIFE

sympathy with the advancing quotations and firmer tone of other markets, prices here were advanced, so that by noon the market was firm, with sellers 1c per bushel higher. This condition of things has

M. S. BURROWS &amp; CO.

_____

You can find the choicest and most varied stock of

Corn, Oats, Flour, Mill Feed, Hay, Etc
Office and Warehouse on Lake Ave., opp. Sutphin's Cold Storage

ge | National $1000; S. Levi v
Marvin & Hawkes, Phoenix of L

it use Pozzani's Powder.

At Stewart & Britton

ROOM 3 Open 2000

